IRAN PLEA TO UNO FAILS TO HALT RUSSIAN TROOPS

NO EFFECT ON RUSSIA SEEN AFTER APPEAL

Truman Confers with Leader of UNO and Byrnes; U. S. Support Forecast.

By The Associated Press

WASHINGTON, March 20 — Russia today was reported continuing her troop maneuvers in Iran despite that government's appeal to the United Nations security council for help in getting Soviet forces out of the country.

Late reports reaching officials here described the tense middle eastern situation is unchanged with main attention for future developments still directed toward the Kurdish areas of Iran, Turkey and Iraq.

No Object Seen

Informants who may not be named said that Iran's appeal to the council, charging the presence of Red army troops in violation of a Soviet-Iranian-British treaty and interference by Soviet agents in Iranian affairs, had had absolutely no effect so far as could be told here on conditions inside Iran.

The formal charges appeared certain to gain council attention.

Trygve Lie, secretary general of the United Nations Organization, conferred for 15 minutes today with President Truman. He declined to discuss the conference in which Secretary of State Byrnes participated.

Predict U. S. Support

American officials predicted that this country will support fully the troubled nation's appeal to the council for prompt action. And indications are that of the 11 council members, Iran will get an easy majority for putting its case on the agenda for early consideration in the sessions scheduled to open in New York next Monday.

Officials do not discount the possibility that Russia may object. However, since only a majority is required and since Russia normally can count only on Polish support to back up any opposition, the required seven votes for consideration seem assured.

The Iranian complaint was made public here late yesterday by UNO General Secretary Trygve Lie. Filed by Iranian Ambassador Hussein Ala, who has been designated by his government to plead the case before the security coun-

SENATE GROUP OKAYS NEW U.S. SOVIET ENVOY

General Smith Approved as Senator Pepper Calls for Big Three Parley.

By The Associated Press

WASHINGTON, March 20 — Russo-American relations came in for senate attention today, with indications that members' views on the life of the draft may be affected.

The foreign relations committee called Lt. Gen. Walter Bedell Smith to Capitol Hill to "size up" —as one member put it privately —both the President's choice for ambassador to Moscow and the international situation as the appointee knows it.

The foreign relations committee unanimously approved the nomination of Gen. Smith as ambassador.

Smith, formerly chief of staff to Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower as Allied supreme commander in Europe, got the okay after appearing briefly for questioning by committee members.

Chairman Connally (D-Tex) said without elaborating that Smith made an excellent impression.

Pepper Wants Parley

Senator Pepper (D-Ala) today called for a full-scale conference of the Big Three to dispel the fear which he said has led to a "crisis of confidence."

Declaring that "this reign of fear reaches from the highest heads of state to the lowliest man in the street," Pepper proposed that the conference be attended by representatives of all walks of life as well as by the chiefs of state and the military.

In a senate speech, Pepper also proposed that:

The United States "destroy every atomic bomb we have and smash every facility we possess capable of producing only destructive forms of atomic energy."

All atomic energy secrets be shared with Russia;

A reconstruction loan be granted to Russia as well as to Britain.

(Russia has refused to discuss her economic dealings with eastern European countries as a part of negotiations for a $1,000,000 loan from the United States, government officials said today.)

Pepper addressed a senate absorbed by the state of Russo-American relations and concerned with requests for an indefinite extension of the draft law and for more funds for the Navy.

And there were strong indications that the military committee plans to take international conditions into account before it acts on any extension of Selective Service's May 15 expiration date. Several senators are members of both the foreign relations and the military groups.

Byrnes, Others Called

The latter committee arranged tentatively to hear Secretary of State Byrnes, Secretary of War Patterson and Secretary of the Navy Forrestal behind closed doors tomorrow afternoon.

Senator Maybank (D-SC), a committee member who is a close friend of Byrnes, said he believes that what the secretary of state has to say about the need

RUSSIANS AIR AIMS IN KOREA

"Furious Resistance" to Democracy Charged; Seek Friendly Regime.

By The Associated Press

SEOUL, March 20 — The Soviet Union bluntly stated its aims in Korea at the opening of the joint American-Russian commission today and charged "there is furious resistance" to Korean Democracy "by reactionary and anti-democratic groups."

Col. Gen. Terenty Shtykov, Russian occupation commander in northern Korea, replied to the welcoming address of Lt. Gen. John R. Hodge, American commander in southern Korea, with:

"The Soviet Union has a keen interest in Korea being a true democratic and independent country, friendly to the Soviet Union so that in the future it will not become a base for an attack on the Soviet Union."

He said his nation championed "self-determination and free existence" but serious difficulties obstructed a realization of democracy in Korea. This he laid to "furious resistance of reactionary and anti-democratic groups and certain elements whose object is to undermine the work of creating and firmly establishing a democratic system in Korea."

Shtykov did not identify these groups. Whether the heavyset veteran of the western front referred only to factions in the American zone was obscured by lack of informaiton on the political situation in the Russian sector.

At one point in his 600-word speech, he used the term "temporary trusteeship" to describe the Allied role in helping trusteeship-hating Korea establish a provision government of its own —the primary assignment of the 10-member joint commission.

Need $6,901 In Red Cross Drive

Expect To Reach County's Goal by Report Meeting Next Week.

Campaign Goal	$38,300.00

Delaware Dam Appropriation Gets Favorable Senate Vote

An appropriation for another $1,500,000 for construction of a dam and reservoir in the Olentangy river near Delaware is included in a bill passed by the U. S. senate yesterday, The Associated Press reported today.

The bill carries total appropriations for $260,000,000 for flood control and other war department civil functions for the year beginning next July 1.

Already passed by the house, the measure now will go to a joint committee of the two branches of congress for adjustment of a $74,000,000 increase voted by the senate.

The appropriation for the Delaware flood and conservation program brings to $2,500,000 the amount of money voted toward the $4,000,000 project.

Contracts Let

Although contract for the dam construction was let by the army engineers several weeks ago no work has been started by the three contracting firms which offered the low bid of $2,289,797. The contractors are S. J. Groves & Son of Minneapolis, Minn., Bowen & McLaughlin of Phoenix, Ariz., and Johnson, Drake & Piper of New York City.

The contractors have established offices in Columbus but are understood to be waiting final approval of the contract in Washington and the arrival of open weather before starting work.

8,000-Acre Lake

The dam, to be located a few miles north of Delaware, will form a lake of approximately 8,000 acres. Normal level of the water will be 922 feet above sea level with a maximum pool level of 947 feet in times of flood. When this maximum level is reached water will cover areas in Waldo and Norton, the army engineers' survey indicates.

The appropriation bill passed yesterday by the senate contains the following amounts for Ohio flood control projects:

Flood control Delaware reservoir, $1,500,000; Muskingum reservoir, $1,548,000; Portsmouth-New Boston, $1,000,000; Massillon, $1,101,000, and Dillon reservoir, $2,000,000.

In addition to the money for the construction projects, the appropriation includes funds for advance planning of scores of new projects by the army engineers.

Labor Union Chief Is Elected As New Russian President

By The Associated Press

MOSCOW, March 20—Nikolai Mikhailovich Shvernik, 58, a leader in the trades union movement in Russia, became the chairman today of the presidium of the Supreme Soviet, a post generally referred to as president of the Soviet Union.

He succeeds Mikhail Ivanovich Kalinin, known to millions of peasants as "the grand old man of the Soviet Union," who resigned because of failing eyesight. Kalinin, 71, had held the office for 27 years. He remains a member of the presidium.

The Supreme Soviet, before adjoining its first post-war session last night, also reelected Generalissimo Joseph Stalin chairman of Russia's council of ministers (premier). The vote was unanimous. Stalin also retains his title of generalissimo and remains head of the Soviet Union's armed forces and secretary general of the central committee of the Communist party.

(The Moscow radio, heard in London, said Stalin henceforth would be called "prime minister.")

Stalin first was elected chairman of the council of ministers—then known as commissars in May, 1941. He succeeded Vyacheslav M. Molotov, who has been reelected vice chairman of the council and continues as foreign commissar, to be known in the future as minister of foreign affairs.

Shvernik, the son of a janitor, has been first vice chairman of the presidium since Feb. 1, 1944.

The presidium is the supreme authority in the U.S.S.R. when the Supreme Soviet is not in session, and thus naturally has great powers. It convenes sessions of the Supreme Soviet, ratifies treaties, interprets laws, conducts referenda, and has power to declare war.

Shvernik is an old Bolshevik who has belonged to the Communist party since 1902. In 1922 he became people's commissar of workers' and peasants' inspection

33 KILLED IN 2 AIR CRASHES

Rescue Crews Work Way Up California Mountains to Wrecked Planes.

By The Associated Press

SAN FRANCISCO, March 20—Crashes of two big Army planes in northern California mountains yesterday apparently took a death toll of 33 Army and Navy men, whose bodies ground crews labored in difficult terrain today to recover.

Twenty-three bodies, some of them buried several feet in snow, had been found early today at the scene of a C-47 crash in the Sierra Nevadas, a mile from the ghost town of Hobart Mills and seven miles from Truckee, Calif. Three others listed on the flight from Stockton, Calif., bound for Ogden, Utah, were believed in the yet inaccessible flight control compartment of the wreckage.

Rescuers Near Scene

A ground squad pushed toward the wreckage of a B-29, which crashed with seven crewmen into the top of a 3,820-foot peak near Livermore, 30 miles southeast of San Francisco. The bomber came from Hickam Field, Honolulu. Its radio reported engine trouble several hours before the plane plummeted to earth 10 feet from the top of the peak.

Witnesses said they saw the C-47 explode in air, and Captain Harold Simer, commanding the Reno, Nev., Army Air Base, said the wreckage indicated a wing, which had not been found, was blown off before the crash.

Snow piled as high as 12 feet in drifts. Army workers and volunteers who reached the C-47 wreckage by snowmobile toiled through the night by campfire and flashlight in continuing snow to recover the frozen bodies, some of which were severely mangled.

Wreckage Scattered

Plane parts were strewn over the rugged mountain for several hundred feet, with the fuselage and tail section 200 feet apart. The twin-engined C-47 did not burn.

The B-29 had been missing since early morning yesterday. A private plane pilot reported discovery of the wreckage late yesterday after an extensive search had been ordered. The bomber pilot had reported his engines were "cutting up" as he approached the mainland and last radio contact with the ground was made at 2:05 a. m. (PST).

Will Marry Off Four Daughters Same Day.

By The Associated Press

DETROIT, March 20—A proud man is grocer George Saieg.

On Sunday April 19 he plans to give four daughters in marriage, virtually all at once.

The brides-to-be are Mary, 21; Dorothy 19; Helen, 22, and Rose, 18. There will be two double ceremonies at St. George Syrian Orthodox church.

Said Saieg: "I never heard of four sisters getting married like that, did you?"

$1,000 Church Gift of LaRue Resident, Revealed at Funeral

Special to The Star

LARUE, March 20—At the funeral service of Mrs. Marian L. Morris, 93, who died at her home here March 8, it was revealed that she had given a $1,000 bond to the building fund of the Methodist church where she was a member.

The gift had been made to Rev. Clarke Davis, pastor, with the request that name of donor not be revealed until after her death.

Mrs. Morris, a former school teacher, was a member of the old Montgomery Methodist church and when that organization disbanded several years ago she brought her membership to the LaRue church. She resided here 14 years after the death of her husband, Jacob Curtis Morris.

Funeral services were held at the Methodist church March 11, in charge of Rev. Clarke Davis assisted by Rev. J. W. Horne with Mrs. Burley Seiler vocalist and Miss Lena Dale Mulvaine organist.

Russians Urged To Share Food

U. S. Leader Tells UNRRA He Sees Hope for Red Aid in World Food Crisis.

By The Associated Press

ATLANTIC CITY, N. J., March 20—Assistant Secretary of State Will Clayton expressed hope today that Russia would grant an UNRRA request for help with wheat shipments "and thus align itself with the United States and other supplying countries."

In an address before delegates from 47 nations, he disclosed that UNRRA "sometime ago" had asked the Soviet whether Russia could supply any wheat to meet the heavy demands of hungry countries.

Speaker Sees Hope

"Although I understand that no definite reply has been received to this inquiry," Clayton added, "it was recently announced that the Soviet Union has agreed to sell to France, reportedly for U. S. dollars, 400,000 tons of wheat and 100,000 tons of barley, provided the necessary shipping could be obtained."

"This report gives ground for hope," he added, "that the Soviet Union may be in a position to give a favorable reply to the UNRRA request and thus align itself with the United States and other supplying countries."

He told the delegates that the United States was happy at the request of France, to provide the necessary shipping to carry the grain from Russia to France "even at the sacrifice of other cargoes for the return trip for which the vessels had been originally scheduled."

Study Rationing

A stern admonition for worldwide belt-tightening, with universal rationing and stringent safeguards against wastage of food, confronted delegates to UNRRA's 47-member council today as they searched for ways of warding off mass starvation.

TRAILER CAMP PLANS PUSHED

50 Units Awarded Marion To Relieve Veterans' Housing Problem.

Fifty trailers provided by the federal government may be set up in Lincoln Park and made available to Marion war veterans in the near future, E. O. Uncapher, safety-service director, said today.

Plans are still in the tentative stage, he said, but terms offered by the federal housing administration in a conference at Cleveland Tuesday are such as to indicate favorable action by council.

Marion was represented at the housing meeting by Uncapher and T. S. Cathers, city engineer, Robert E. White and Louis E. Michel, president and executive secretary, respectively, of the Chamber of Commerce, who were in Cleveland on other business, also were present.

50 Allocated Here

Marion was recently allocated 50 one-family dwellings by the government. It was ascertained Tuesday that the Lincoln Park site, owned by the federal government, is available for lease by the city. If Lincoln Park property is acquired as the site of the housing program, units obtained from the federal housing authority will be trailers, since Lincoln Park was originally built for trailers. Approximately 300 trailers were brought here by the federal government during the war to house workers at the Scioto Ordnance plant. They have now been removed, but water and sewage facilities and stone covered roads still remain. This fact will enable the city to set up the trailers and get them ready for occupancy in the near future if the program goes through, Mr. Uncapher said.

A dozen Ohio cities, which have requested 2,249 portable dwellings as emergency housing for veterans from the FPHA, have been allocated 499 thus far.

These figures were disclosed at the Cleveland meeting held at regional FPHA headquarters, attended by representatives from the 12 cities and six others which have not yet filed requests.

In addition, Ohio university has asked for 300 family units and 1,200 dormitory units for enrolled veterans with families. Heidelberg college has been allocated 62 dormitory units toward its request for 100. Findlay college has requested, and has been allocated, 10 family units, with a request for 30 dormitory units still pending.

Other Allotments

The cities represented at yesterday's meeting, and the number of units allocated toward their requests, included, in addition to Marion's 50, the following:

Mansfield 74 of 400; Youngstown 200 of 400; Bellevue 12 of 100; Lorain 50 of 200; Campbell 20 of 100; Clyde 10 of 150; Fostoria 25 of 200; Tiffin none of 20; Middletown 33 of 100; Athens 25 of 50. In addition, a request for 299 at Findlay, through the Hancock county soldiers and sailors relief committee is under review.

Charles B. Lawrence Jr., regional director of the FPHA, said the municipalities should select sites, subject to FPHA standards, paying for the sites whenever nec-

REST HOMES GET NEW CODE

Tightening of Rules in Ohio Seems Assured After Okay of Proposals.

By The Associated Press

COLUMBUS, O., March 20—A tightening up of rest home operations in Ohio was virtually assured today through more than 150 proposed new regulations which are expected to become effective with only minor changes.

The proposals were advanced by 50 rest home operators and representatives of social and welfare agencies at a gathering here yesterday.

Ira M. Lamoreaux, chief of the state welfare department's division of aid for the aged, reported that the proposals evoked "no real objections," and predicted they would be adopted by the state with only minor changes.

The new rules—covering details of licensing, building requirements, safety, sanitation provisions for care of residents and records kept by the home operators—become effective 10 days after filing with the secretary of state.

One of the major proposals would give the division chief the right to refuse for one year an application for a home in the same building where the applicant's license had been denied or revoked.

Another would give people whose application for a license was rejected the right to appeal to common pleas court.

Other proposals would:

1) Require the training of all personnel, including attendants and janitors, of patient-caring homes in the correct way to go to the restroom and the correct way to be helped by the home operator.

2) Require that residents' food have adequate nutritional value for whatever incapacitated patients outlined by the U. S. department of agriculture.

3) Require that all medicine, drugs and first aid equipment be kept in a locked compartment.

4) Make the rest home subject to requirements of local sanitary, building and safety departments in addition to the division's home inspection section.

GOERING CONFESSES ANTI-JEWISH ORDERS

By The Associated Press

NUERNBERG, March 20—Hermann Goering told the international military tribunal today that he had signed numerous anti-Jewish decrees as president of the Reichstag and "I assume full responsibility" for them.

In the witness box for the fifth day in his own defense, the former reichsmarshal declared that both Joseph Goebbels and Heinrich Himmler were more radical than himself on the Jewish question.

He said defendant Julius Streicher was violently anti-Jewish, but dismissed him as "not a member of the government and though he was a publisher he had no influence on the government."

Lord Justice Geoffrey Lawrence, presiding member of the tribunal, overruled Jackson's effort to compel Goering to stop making what the prosecutor termed "propaganda" remarks from the witness stand.

Under steady questioning, Goering conceded the authenticity of documents showing that Nazi party courts were given precedence over penal courts in trying Nazis for anti-Jewish excesses, that party courts were instructed to prevent publicity of the fact that Nazis were instructed to start such disorders and that only minor punishments were imposed for slaying Jews.

Justice Jackson yesterday took particular exception to the defendant's remark: "I don't believe I can recall publication of the mobilization plans of the United States."

He made that remark when questioned about the secrecy of Nazi mobilization plans in the Rhineland.

Commandant of Oswiecim Camp Gives Signed Confession to British.

By The Associated Press

BERLIN, March 20—The gassing of 2,000,000 Jews and other persons at the Oswiecim horror camp has been admitted in a signed statement given to British authorities by Rudolf Hoess, 46-year-old commandant of the camp, who was arrested on March 8.

Hoess, who was found hiding out on a farm near Flensburg, signed the confession on March 16, British officials declared. They quoted Hoess' statement as saying:

"I personally arranged, on orders received from Himmler in May, 1941, the gassing of 2,000,000 persons between June and July, 1941, and the end of 1943, during which I was commandant at Oswiecim."

After he left Oswiecim, Hoess said, he relayed Himmler's orders for the gassing of an additional half-million persons. British investigators said evidence showed that a more accurate estimate of the figure would be 2,000,000—bringing to some 4,000,000 the number of persons for whose deaths Hoess might be held responsible.

Asked by British interrogators whether he believed in God, Hoess was quoted as saying:

"Most emphatically, no."

Hoess' statement, the British said, declared that after the victims had been gassed and their bodies cremated, internees were ordered to crush any remaining bodies with wooden clubs. What was left was thrown into the Vistula river.

The victims, mainly Jews from Warsaw, Budapest and other large cities in eastern Europe were executed, Hoess asserted, under direct orders from Himmler on the grounds it was necessary to protect the German people if the Reich lost the war.

NEW FLARE-UP SNAGS GM REOPENING HOPES

By The Associated Press

DETROIT, March 20—Hopes for speedy resumption of normal output on General Motors Corporation's huge assembly lines were snagged today as a new company-union row flared up over local grievances.

GM, its production facilities idled for the 120th day, stood pat on an assertion it would not reopen any one of its 98 struck plants until the CIO United Auto Workers agreed to open them all.

The UAW, which late Tuesday notified the company that its members had approved the national phases of the strike settlement, was quick to condemn GM's stand.

"The officers of the UAW-CIO * * * had a clear understanding with the corporation that the strike settlement covered only national issues and that upon ratification of the national strike agreement, certain locals might remain on strike because their plant managements had failed to settle local issues satisfactorily," declared the union.

LEWIS STILL PUSHES FOR MINE WELFARE

By The Associated Press

WASHINGTON, March 20 — John L. Lewis exerted undiminished pressure today for a miners' health and welfare fund as part of the price of a new contract that will avert an April 1 soft coal strike.

The issues of wages and hours were put aside temporarily as union and industry representatives assembled for their second day of closed-door negotiations. Neither side indicated yet what basis of agreement it might have in mind.

However, an operators' spokesman made it clear that the first bargaining session yesterday, following a week of public "town hall" debate, did not stress Lewis' general demand for high wages and shorter hours for his United Mine Workers.

Rather, the 14-man negotiating committee went into details of the UMW proposal for establishment of a special fund for improving the medical and hospitalization care of the 400,000 soft-coal miners, but reached no decisions.

Lewis will terminate his present contract with the mine operators as of midnight March 31.

perative luxury, men and women who have known suffering at first hand in recently liberated lands pondered Director General Herbert Lehman's call for return to the rigid, wartime food controls to win the peacetime fight against hunger.

Setting the stage for a full dress debate on food which will open today, the returning chief of history's greatest mission of mercy cautioned yesterday that voluntary food conservation measures alone "no matter how energetically they are pursued, are not enough."

He called for emphasis on "all-out" food production, for less grain for livestock and more for humans, less for liquor and more for the world's hungry millions, for a campaign to "eliminate the garbage pail as their competitor."

But, meanwhile, delegates themselves acknowledged privately a considerable measure of confusion as to what should be done—and how—to meet the problems ahead.

Vital Food Survey Report Awaited

By The Associated Press

WASHINGTON, March 20 — The nation learns today whether its farmers think they will be able to meet the record crop acreage goals needed to help ease critical world wide food shortages.

The agriculture department scheduled for release at 3 p. m. a report on the total acreage farmers plan to plant this year.

Based on a nationwide survey, the report may have been far-reaching implications for Americans as well as for hungry people abroad.

Should it indicate that plantings will fall far short of agriculture department goals, the result might well be an early return of rationing of some foods in this country.

Food officials at first discounted this possibility when the present emergency arose last month.

But a fuller recognition of the world situation and the action of Director General Herbert H. Lehman is calling upon all UNRRA-supporting nations to return to rationing has led some officials to be less optimistic.

Information received by the agriculture department, members of congress and farm organization leaders here indicates that farmers are seriously handicapped by shortages of labor, farm machinery, fertilizers and other supplies.

U. S. Dealers Blame OPA, Black Market for Meat Shortage

By The Associated Press

Drastic slaughter reductions and the threat of a critical meat shortage in this country were reported today by meat packers and retailers, who blamed the situation on OPA price ceilings and the growing black market.

"We are facing a meat shortage such as we've never seen before," Joseph W. Stevens, field secretary of the Individual Retail Grocers and Meat Dealers association, said in St. Louis yesterday.

Packing companies claim they are unable to slaughter cattle at a profit under the OPA ceilings and that they cannot compete in buying cattle with black market buyers. One company official said in Chicago yesterday that black market buyers were able to make an average profit of $50 a head.

The slaughter rate in the major Kansas City packing plants has dropped from 180 to 18 an hour, with 1,000 employes laid off. Slaughter rates down as much as 75 per cent were reported in St. Louis, Omaha, Sioux City, Des Moines, Tulsa, Louisville, Los Angeles, Indianapolis, San Antonio, Wichita, Topeka and Oklahoma City. Some smaller plants in the midwest have closed down completely.

Thomas E. Wilson, chairman of Wilson & Co., told the company's stockholders in Chicago yesterday that the growing black market was "getting away from the OPA."

Another Contest

The conventions' politics also will include a contest for the UAW-CIO's second vice presidency, vacated by Richard T. Frankenteen, veteran of the UAW's battles since the union's infancy, who quit with the explanation he wishes to give more time to private and family life.

Richard T. Leonard, who led the union's negotiations for the new Ford Motor Co. contract, is regarded as a leading candidate for Frankenteen's office.

Union circles say there may be numerous aspirants for the post, among them Jack Livingston of Kansas City and Richard Gosser of Toledo, both UAW-CIO regional directors.

out, it made these two specific charges.

1. That Red army troops are remaining in Iranian territory beyond the March 2 deadline fixed under an Anglo-Soviet-Iranian treaty of January, 1942. That treaty specified that all foreign troops should be withdrawn from the country six months after the end of the war.

2. That Russia "is continuing to interfere in the internal affairs of Iran through the medium of Soviet agents, officials and armed forces."

Meanwhile, it appeared that in the face of these charges Russia is continuing to send reinforcements into Iran for objectives still described here as obscure.

Predominant opinion among Washington officials at the moment seems to be that the Russians are counting on an indefinite stay of their troops in Iran and that there is no direct way except by force of opinion to get them out until Moscow is ready for them to go.

Iran Fights Off Kurdish Attacks

By The Associated Press

TEHRAN, March 20—An Iranian general staff officer said today three Iranian garrisons near the Iraq border were fighting off attacking Kurdish tribesmen and that aerial support has been dispatched to prevent them from being cut off from their divisional headquarters.

The officer told reporters that the garrisons of Sardasht and Baneh in Kurdistan and Saqquiz, on the Azerbaijan-Kurdistan border, "have been under attack for a week, but are holding out."

He said tribesmen from both Iraq and Iran were involved in the action and that his agents had reported "strangers who speak a Turku dialect similar to that heard in northern Azerbaijan" were observed among the tribesmen.

He estimated the attackers numbered 3,000.

3 OF MASS MURDER VICTIMS IN GESTAPO

By The Associated Press

PARIS, March 20 — Prosecutor Pierre Dupin dropped a surprise in the multiple murder trial of Dr. Marcel Petiot today when he conceded that at least three of the 27 slayings charged against Petiot were of Gestapo agents.

The prosecutor's statement came after Petiot had never let the "executions" of the three, allegedly by other members of the "resistance group."

The third day of the trial found the defendant involved in an effort to prove that the Jews among the persons he is accused of killing were Gestapo decoys.

The argumentative doctor reached this point last night as the court took up individual cases of 15 Jews whom the prosecution avers paid Petiot money on the promise they would be smuggled from Nazi-occupied France.

The defendant reiterated his opening day declaration that they were "Jews who were traitors" from his viewpoint as an alleged member of a resistance group. He denied killing any of the persons named.

He told the court the story of a Jewish woman working for the Gestapo. He said she asked refugees for their papers and then had them arrested. Petiot said his resistance group trailed her and caught 24 accomplices—part of the 63 persons whom Petiot has said were "executed."

The first specific case mentioned in court was that of a French housewife Madame Marthe Khan, who disappeared after telling her family she was going to see Petiot. Ten days later letters from her were pushed under the doorways of her family and two friends, saying she had left for the unoccupied zone for a rest cure.

Petiot testified he advised the cure, saw her to the station and has not heard of her since.

House Minority Report Cites Beatings, Mistreatment at 3 Hospitals.

(Account of majority report on Veterans' hospitals is on page 3.)

By The Associated Press

WASHINGTON, March 20 — Seven members of the house veterans committee filed a minority report today saying there had been "cases of beatings and mistreatment of patients" in veterans hospitals.

The minority listed veterans hospitals at Northport, L. I., Lyons, N. J., and Coatesville, Ohio, in its disagreement with the committee's report on treatment of veterans which was adopted by a 9 to 7 vote yesterday, with three members absent.

In general the minority agreed with the majority, but there were other exceptions in addition to the findings on the three hospitals. The majority report only told of "some abuses" at them.

Both reports opposed use of uniformed military personnel in veterans hospitals and blamed many faults complained of on wartime conditions and the increased work load of Veterans Administration.

Like Old Report

Signed by Representatives Dorn (D-S. C.), Sasscer (D-Md.), Pickett (D-Tex), Rayfiel (D-NY), Huber (D-Ohio), Rogers (R-Mass), and Kearney (R-NY), the minority report was strikingly similar to a subcommittee report rejected several weeks ago by the full committee.

It listed 20 "findings" compared with the 21 in the rejected version, and made 20 recommendations, two less than were made in the report turned down.

Not in the minority report was a finding in the rejected version that magazine and newspaper articles failed to show a true picture of conditions and "had a very disturbing effect upon the morale of patients, parents and the public in general."

The minority also excluded from its findings reference to the use of conscientious objectors in veterans hospitals. The original report which the committee refused to accept blamed conscientious objectors and Negro troops for "some mistreatment and neglect treatment of patients."

The minority also admonished the Veterans Administration for "placing its own interpretation of laws without regard to the intent of congress."

At a news conference at which they distributed copies of their findings, the minority members said that an agreement reached by the full committee not to publish either of the reports until they were ready had been violated by Chairman Rankin (D-Miss).

Rankin distributed copies of the majority report immediately after it was approved yesterday, but withheld formally filing it with the house until today. Under this procedure, both reports will be printed together as a public document.

Members of the engineer's department worked for several hours sweeping the glass from the road, and the sheriff's office today was seeking persons who might have thrown it there.

Mr. Johnson pointed out that county roads are marked with signs warning persons against throwing rubbish and trash along the road. Every spring, he said, it is necessary to haul away rubbish which has been dumped along the roads and in the ditches. On the Campbell road alone, he estimates at least three truck loads of trash and broken glass must be hauled away.

OPA Hits Financing Plans for Used Cars

CLEVELAND, March 20—Prospective buyers of used automobiles should proceed cautiously when a dealer turns down full payment and insists on a financing plan, says Walter J. Heddesheimer, attorney with the Cleveland Office of Price Administration.

"That type of transaction is illegal," said the attorney, "as it places an additional burden on the purchaser.

He advised returning servicemen to ask for a warranty certificate when used car dealers charge a 25 per cent makeup over OPA ceiling prices for making repairs to put their cars in first class operating condition.

Then the buyers should check to see that the repairs actually have been made, he added.

Coast-to-Coast Rail Sleeper Service Set

By The Associated Press

CHICAGO, March 20 — Six of the country's major east-west railroads have announced plans for daily coast to coast sleeping car service, a new accommodation to the traveling public which will dispense with change of trains.

Railroads participating in the new service, to start March 31, include the New York Central, Santa Fe, Pennsylvania, Chicago and North Western, Union Pacific and Southern Pacific lines. The Rock Island will join the group on June 2.

Under the plans announced by rail officials last night, passengers in sleeping cars no longer will have to change trains in Chicago. The cars, rather than the passengers, will change stations, to be switched from one railroad to another.

The service, rail officials said, was to have been started in 1941, but was set aside because of the war. The plan was revived in recent months and final details worked out. Robert R. Young, chairman of the Chesapeake and Ohio, advocated the plan recently, but his road is not a member of the participating group.

McCONNELLSVILLE, O., March 20—Mrs. E. M. Stanbery, who recently told her daughter she had "never found life tiresome," today observed her 102nd birthday.

2,000 VOTERS NOW OFF LIST

Must Register in Order To Vote in May Primary Election.

An estimated 2,000 Marion county residents will not be eligible to vote in the May primaries unless they register with the election board before April 8, according to Mrs. Nora Fetter, clerk of the Marion county election board.

Of the 2,000 persons not registered only about 500 are war veterans, Mrs. Fetter said, and she pointed out that veterans were coming into the election board office every day to check on their voting status.

The main voting difficulty encountered by many Marionites, Mrs. Fetter said, is that many do not notify the board when they move from one voting precinct to another. In moving to another voting precinct, voters must register with the election board or they will not be eligible to vote.

Registrations this year are running about 16,000, compared to the record year of 1940 when 18,000 persons in Marion county registered to vote. Last year the registration was 16,106 and the previous year it was 15,879.

Ballots are expected to be returned to the election board office from the printer sometime this week. In addition to the regular party ballots, voters in the May primary will be given a ballot asking for a bond issue for Marion's school building program.

Two servicemen, one in the South Pacific and one in Germany, have made application for absentee ballots. One is a Democrat and the other a Republican. Absentee voting this year is expected to be very small, Mrs. Fetter said. Any relative of a serviceman may file application for ballots for him.

With the deadline for registering set for April 8, the election board office on East Center street will remain open during the noon hour starting April 1. Regular hours are from 9 a. m. to 12 noon and from 1 p. m. to 5 p. m. On April 5, 6 and 8 the office will stay open until 9 p. m.

Job Hunt Opened for Veterans and Displaced War Workers

A canvass of Marion employers to find suitable job openings for war veterans and displaced war workers is being conducted by the Marion United States Employment Service office.

Members of the USES staff are asking employers for assistance in a job development program which they hope will find employment for approximately 924 job seekers. Of this number, 481 are former service men, employment officials pointed out.

Cooperation Asked

In letters mailed last week to Marion employers, Fred B. Scherff, manager of the Marion employment office, asked employers for their cooperation in helping returned service men and displaced war workers to find jobs. This week employment workers were following up with personal interviews with employers.

The local canvass is part of a nationwide program to find job openings for more than 6,000,000 veterans, displaced war workers and other job applicants who will seek employment during the first six months of 1946. The program was ordered by Secretary of Labor L. B. Schwellenbach because, he said, job openings now on file in the 1,725 local employment offices are inadequate both in numbers and in quality of jobs to afford adequate job opportunities to the veteran and other job applicants now seeking employment and the additional estimated 2,500,000 veterans who will return home and enter the labor market before June 30.

Statement Issued

Perry Faulkner, chief of the Veterans Employment Service, said in launching the program, "The nation is giving neither the returning veterans nor the displaced war workers the job opportunities their skills and abilities merit. The nation's employers have an opportunity of not only providing jobs for veterans but of obtaining workers of the highest skills and qualifications. The local office has the responsibility of helping the veterans, displaced war workers and other job applicants find the job openings which are available in each community."

Harding Unveils Plans for Track and Baseball; 1946 Grid Schedule Set

School Maps First Cinder Competition in Four Years

First Spring Sport Practice Due April 1; 10-Game Football Card, Minus NCO League, Billed.

By JIM DARBY

For the first time since the start of the war Harding High school will have a track team this year, it was announced today. Plans for a more extensive baseball season and the 1946 football schedule were also revealed.

First calls for practice for both track and baseball will go out April 1 and a schedule will be drawn up in the near future. Track will be coached by George Niemi and baseball by W. N. Wiley, last year's assistant football coach.

No Spring Grid Drills

Since Ohio High School Athletic association rules provide that a school may hold either spring football practice or early fall practice but not both, it was decided to drop spring practice this year and begin Aug. 20.

Ten games are on the 1946 football schedule as approved by the athletic board at its meeting this week. Nine are already booked and one is yet to be arranged.

Football Schedule

The schedule is:
Sept. 13 at Mansfield.
Sept. 20 Columbus Linden McKinley.
Sept. 27 at Piqua.
Oct. 4 Barberton.
Oct. 11 at Lima South.
Oct. 18 Findlay.
Oct. 24 Ashland.
Nov. 1 to be arranged.
Nov. 8 Sandusky.
Nov. 15 at Springfield.

School officials said it was still too early to predict Harding's success on the gridiron this fall but did believe that the return of many who gained experience as sophomores would improve last year's standing. However, they pointed to the fact that the schedule provides no breathers and no rests.

NCO Loop Looks Dead

Officials said revival of the old North Central Ohio league is a dead issue. There have been no preliminary moves to re-establish the league and officials doubted if there would be.

Home track meets will be held at the Harding Stadium. Arrangements for a baseball diamond are still in the vague stage. School officials said the boys at Harding want baseball and they will try to give it to them. Possibilities are that a vacant lot will have to be found somewhere and worked down into a playing field. Conflict with the practice and schedules of the Marion Cardinals will prevent any use of Lincoln Park.

Track and baseball opponents will have to be scheduled as plans develop. The school is tentatively planning to schedule those teams within a radius of 40 to 50 miles which have track and baseball teams. Some likely opponents are Upper Sandusky, Galion, Bucyrus, Kenton and Mt. Vernon.

FIGHTS LAST NIGHT

LONDON—Jackie Paterson, 117½, Glasgow, Scotland, was declared a winner on a foul over Theo Medina, 117½, France in the eighth round of their scheduled 15-round bout for the European bantamweight crown.

NEW YORK—Elmer "Violent" Ray, 195, Hastings, Fla., knocked out Robert Hood, 197½, Chicago (4).

KANSAS CITY, Kas.—Frittie Zivic, 149, Pittsburgh, Pa., outpointed (newspaper decision) Levi Southall, 141, Kansas City (10).

PLEASANT AND KIRK IN JR. HIGH FINALS

Defeat Martel and Morral in County Tournament.

Pleasant and Kirkpatrick fought their way into the finals of the county Junior High school tournament as they downed Martel and Morral last night in the semi-finals at New Bloomington.

Pleasant whipped Martel 32 to 21 in a game in which they were never extended. Led by Cusick with 16 points the winners got into an early lead and never lost it. Jones scored 15 points to lead Kirkpatrick in an easy 34 to 20 win over Morral.

Friday at 7:30 p. m. the losers of last night's semi-finals will meet to determine third place while the finalists battle at 8:30.

M'KECHNIE BELIEVES REDS NOW IN STRIDE

Ciney Team Outslugs Boston To Please Deacon Bill.

By The Associated Press

BRADENTON, Fla., March 20—Deacon Bill McKechnie was all smiles today as his Redlegs from Cincinnati lined up for an exhibition game with the New York Yankees' No. 2 squad.

But the Yankees had nothing to do with McKechnie's humor. It was the Reds performance at the plate yesterday in splitting a doubleheader with the Boston Red Sox that brought on the smiles. In all, the Redlegs pounded out 28 assorted hits and now Deacon Bill feels for the first time this season that his 1946 club is swinging into its hitting stride.

The supposedly weak-hitting Reds blasted Jim Bagby and Otis Clark for 22 hits that totaled 33 bases in winning the opener 9-1. The Cincinnati reserves then dropped the nightcap to Manager Joe Cronin's second-stringers 4-3.

Outfielders Dain Clay and Al Libke paced the Redleg regulars with four hits each in the opener while Nate Andrews, Johnny Vander Meer and Howard Fox were limiting Ted Williams & Co. to six scratch hits.

Even the Redlegs reserves were potent at the plate, for, during the nightcap, they outhit Boston by an 8-5 margin.

"Wrestles Tag Match Thursday"

All Pasha, the bearded Hindu from Calcutta, India, will team up with Monty LaDue, rough Canadian woodman, in the Tag Team Match at the Marion Armory. The other team will be the popular Whitey Walberg and equally popular Young Sandow of Chicago. There is no doubt that Walberg and Sandow will have their hands full with such a team as the Pasha, LaDue combination but Whitey is one of the fastest men in the game and his partner is just about the best thing the Windy City has turned out in the grappling game. There will be two 30-minute matches to open the show at 8:30. Whitey Walberg will meet Ali Pasha in one of these while Monty LaDue will wrestle Young Sandow in the other. It's a great program with plenty of action. Call Markert & Lewis Cigar Store early for your best seats. No advance in prices.—Adv.

DOG WINS LETTER. Oscar, the school-loving dog shown above with his master Bill McKain Jr. at Centralia, Ill., rarely missed a football practice last season. For loyalty Coach A. L. Trout awarded him a football "C", despite the fact Oscar has only three good legs. The dog has been following Bill to school since the grades. He is a 4-F rejectee from the K-9 Corps.

Training Camp Highlights

Mize Blossoms Out

MIAMI, Fla., March 20—Big Johnny Mize is the reason for Mel Ott's happy frame of mind today. The husky New York Giants first sacker is really beginning to belt the ball and yesterday he poled out a two-run triple and a single in the Giants' 5-2 conquest of the Philadelphia Athletics.

• • •

Nats Boast Defense

ORLANDO, Fla.—Not in years have the Washington Senators had a good second base combination but it's different this spring. Cecil Travis and Gerry Priddy have been turning in from two to four double plays regularly, removing one of Manager Ossie Bluege's biggest worries.

• • •

Phillies to Change Style

MIAMI BEACH, Fla.—After using 17 men in trying to stop the Boston Braves, Manager Ben Chapman announced that hereafter there will not be so many changes in the Philadelphia Phillies' lineup during games. One of those who probably will start and finish tomorrow's game with the Baltimore International league Orioles is Ron Northey, Phil right fielder who poled a 350-foot home; against the Braves who defeated the Phils, 9-3.

• • •

Southworth Hopeful

FORT LAUDERDALE, Fla.—Billy Southworth expects to have the answer to his most puzzling Boston Braves' pitching problem tonight after looking over Al Javery in action against the Athletics. Southworth does not know just what to expect but he explained, "It will make me very happy if Javery shows me something."

'MAJOR' CAMPBELL STAGES BIG BLITZ FOR TRIBE

Soup Smashes Way to Steady Job With Indians.

By The Associated Press

CLEARWATER, Fla., March 20—Ex-Army Major Clarence (Soup) Campbell today appeared to be in command of a position on the Cleveland Indians' 1946 regular roster.

Campbell climaxed his spring hitting spree yesterday with a home run, double and single in four trips to pace the Tribe to its third straight exhibition victory, 6 to 5, over the world champion Detroit Tigers.

Bob Lemon and Campbell clouted four-baggers in the opening inning to give the Tribe a four-run margin. The Indians took a 5-1 lead in the second frame but Detroit rallied behind Dick Wakefield's roundtripper and a ninth-inning homer by Pat Mullin to tie the score.

Sherman Lollar drove a line single to score Campbell with the winning run in the ninth as Winslow (Dink) Stroupe was credited with the triumph. Allie Reynolds and Pete Center also hurled for the Tribe while Lou Kretlow and Hal White pitched for Detroit.

Manager Lou Boudreau nominated Don Black and Ed Klieman to take the mound today against the high – flying New York Yankees.

Joe McGraw, veteran trotting official from Washington, Pa., has been associated with the sport for 50 years.

It Ain't So, Says Ken

By The Associated Press

MILWAUKEE, March 20—Ken Keltner, third baseman for the Cleveland Indians, says he is not a holdout.

Keltner, who just returned to his home here from Shoemaker, Calif., after his discharge from the Navy, said a report from Clearwater, Fla., that he had sent back a contract unsigned to Vice President Roger Peckinpaugh of the Cleveland club was not true. He said he has not received a contract.

AGGIE STAR HEADED FOR SCORING CROWN

Kurland Still Has Games To Play; Otten Seventh.

By The Associated Press

NEW YORK, March 20—Big Bob Kurland of the NCAA and Missouri Valley champion Oklahoma Aggies, and not Elmore Morgenthaler of New Mexico Mines, apparently is going to win the 1946 national collegiate individual high scoring basketball title.

A week ago Morgenthaler, who wound up the season with 595 points, seemed assured of finishing on top, but the weekly Associated Press tabulation today disclosed that Kurland, with two and possibly three more games to play, needs only 25 points to pass Morgenthaler.

Currently Kurland is in third place at 571, but at the terrific clip he has traveled in the Aggies' last nine games, he appears certain to cross the 600-point mark, thus easily passing Bill Hall of Marshall, now second at 572, and Morgenthaler.

Only Ohioan in the first ten is Don Otten of Bowling Green with 470 points in 32 games, ranking seventh.

WINS GALION TOURNEY

GALION, March 20 — The Galion city bowling tournament has been completed and winners announced. Charles Gerberich of Crestline Eagles rolled a 727 to win the singles. Two returned servicemen, Bill Thran and Paul Widenthaler, rolled 1327 to walk away with double honors. Widenthaler rolled a 1274 to place first in the scratch (without handicap) all events. Prizes will be distributed Thursday evening at the Galion recreation rooms.

Boston's Tommy Holmes Guns for Loop Battery Crown

1945 Runner-up Credits Boxing Practice With Success at Plate

By CHIP ROYAL
AP Newsfeatures Sports Editor

FORT LAUDERDALE, Fla.—Tommy Holmes, runner-up to Phil Cavaretta of the Cubs for the batting championship of the National league in 1945, is serving notice right now that he expects his added experience to bring him the hitting honors this year.

Tommy, in case your memory is frozen, is the Brooklyn-born Boston Brave who set a new senior circuit record last season by hitting safely in 37 consecutive games.

He also wound up his best year with the most hits (224), played all 154 games, led in doubles with 47, paced other Nationals in total bases with 367, hit .352 and clouted 28 home runs, tops for the loop.

"I was really disappointed when I didn't win the batting crown," smiles Tommy. "But I wasn't trying for percentages. I figured I could help the club more by going for power. If I had only been interested in base hits, I probably would have won top hitting honors.

"You know, I got quite a kick out of breaking Rogers Hornsby's record. He has always been one of my idols. Frankly, though, I didn't have any idea of breaking a record. Every time I went to the plate, I just wanted to hit that ball."

Speaking of hitting the pill on the nose, Tommy leads them all at the platter. He has struck out fewer times than any other batter. Last year he whiffed only nine times in 713 trips.

Ask him how he always manages to smack the apple and Holmes spreads his freckles all over his face as he grins:

"I guess it is because I started punching the bag when I was eight years old and always sharpened up my eyes every time I could.

"Competitive sports are the greatest conditioner in the world. When I'm not boxing, I play handball. That keeps my legs in shape and helps my coordination. Your reflexes must work together and the only way to keep them happy is to use them.

"I am a great believer in percentages. You've got to figure all angles if you expect to get ahead in life.

"Take some of my home runs, for instance. I admit I am always trying for power but I've taken more than one cut at a 2 and 0 pitch and sent it over the fence. Some of them have to go.

"We had plenty of good p[itchers] last season but there is one [way] to beat a pitcher. Study h[im] way he does you. That is [why] bat differently against almost [ev]ery hurler.

"I've worked on my stance for two years. Paul Waner and Johnny Cooney helped me. They taught me not to pull hits. Now that I've got the experience, I think I can help my own at the plate.

"But I want to tell you something. I'm going to keep on swinging every pitch. Sooner or later most of the mound boys will talk themselves away and I won't know what's coming over the plate—and I will!"

Once owned by the Yankees, Tommy uses the open stance.

Closeup of Tommy Holmes' keen eyes and firm grip. They helped him bat .352 last season.

Toledo Woodward-Middletown Game Sure To Be Fan Pleaser

By HAROLD HARRISON
Associated Press Sports Writer

COLUMBUS, O., March 20—If history repeats itself, the customers will see quite a ball game Friday night when Middletown and Toledo Woodward clash at Toledo in the second game of the final Class "A" Ohio high school basketball tournament.

These two schools last met in the championship game of the 1944 tournament. Middletown jumped into a 14 to 2 lead and then wiped out a three-point deficit in the last 34 seconds to knot the score at the end of the regulation playing time. In the overtime the Middies came from three points behind again to win, 50 to 47 and take their first and only state title.

This is the second of a series of stories on teams that will compete in the final Ohio high school basketball tournaments Friday and Saturday.

Woodward Is Surprise

Woodward's appearance in the finals this year comes as a surprise and therein also lies a story. Last year Coach Homer Hanham came up with another great team—some considered it even better than his 1944 aggregation and the Polar Bears looked like a shoo-in to the final tournament. But disaster struck in the district and Woodward sat out the final tourney.

This year the Polar Bears dropped four games during the regular season and were decided underdogs to both Toledo Macomber and Rossford in the district. The situation reversed itself, however. Woodward still is in the running and Macomber and Rossford will be cast in the role of spectators Friday.

Middletown, meanwhile, has become almost legendary in Ohio high school basketball. The Middies now have won 21 in a row this season. Their only defeat in their last 68 games was to Bellevue in the championship game of the 1945 tournament. They haven't been beaten in a regularly scheduled game in more than two years.

This year, the Middies are playing under a new coach—George Houck, who took over the job after Rayner Greene became assistant coach at Cornell university. But their amazing play, particularly on defense, has continued without a break.

They've been pressed seriously only three times in 24 games. Those tilts were the 34 to 31 triumph over Hamilton Public and 34 to 30 conquests of Newark and Springfield. It might be noted that in later games Middletown whipped Hamilton, 42 to 20, and Springfield, 54 to 25.

Hanham, who has been coaching at Woodward since 1936, is proud of his current squad.

Observers call it a "superbly coached" combination.

Middletown will be playing in a final tournament for the fifth time and it will be Woodward's fourth appearance in the last series of games—all under the Hanham regime.

Snatches of Sports

By HUGH FULLERTON JR.
AP Sports Writer

NEW YORK, March 20—It sounds slightly confusing, as so many things in this sports business are, but Al Sutphin, Cleveland's round man with the red necktie, claims that in many respects even boomtime sports don't pay their own way. . . . Looking at it from the arena owner's viewpoint, Al shows where a building with more than 10,000 capacity has a lot of seats that never pay for themselves and at the same time he explains that the American Hockey league remains a minor circuit because most of its arenas don't have the seating capacities to pay big league salaries. . . . The explanation apparently is that the guy who puts up one of those big structures loses his dough and the one who takes it over at a bargain price can operate it profitably. . . . Al claims that in Cleveland, America's second-best boxing city, his rentals are just peanuts and that the real reason the Chicago stadium barred fights was that they weren't bringing in enough dough.

Charley Marion, 19-year-old brother of the celebrated Slats, turned up in the Cardinals' training camp this spring and big brother explained he didn't know what position the kid played "but he was a whiz at football and basketball." . . . Positions apparently don't mean much to Marty, who was a third baseman when he first reported to the Huntington, W. Va., club of the Middle Atlantic league but switched to short when he found the team was well equipped with third-sackers.

DONKEY-RIDING CAGERS BOOK GAME AT MORRAL

Animals to Wear Rubber Shoes in Freak Contest.

Lovers of the unusual will have a chance to indulge their passion when Morral High school plays Morral Farmers in a game of donkey basketball Monday at 8 p. m. at the Morral gym. Four players are allowed per team and the game is played from the backs of donkeys furnished by the Buckeye Donkey Co. of Columbus. The company will send referees to interpret the rules of the game.

Strictly a passing game, players are allowed to dismount if they lose the ball but must remount as soon as they have it in their hands again and all shots must be made while mounted. To preserve the floor the donkeys are shod in rubber soled shoes. The game consists of four eight minute quarters.

NEW LOOP TO MEET

By The Associated Press

CLEVELAND, March 20—The new Midwestern Athletic conference will go into its first schedule-making session tomorrow in Columbus. Present members are Wesleyan Reserve, Ohio university, University of Cincinnati, Wayne university of Detroit, and Butler university of Indianapolis. Mentioned as a possible entry is the University of Louisville. Case turned down a bid.

The second team: Stout of Richwood and McClarren of Mt. Gilead, forwards, Weis of St. Mary, center, Keebaugh of Delaware and Lancaster of Mt. Gilead, guards.

Tag Team Match On Thursday Mat Card

A tag team match for 90 minutes or the best two out of three falls and two 30-minute one fall bouts will feature the wrestling card at the armory at 8:30 p. m. Thursday.

Whitey Walberg will wrestle Ali Pasha in a one 30-minute bout while Monty LaDue, the rough Canadian, will mix with Young Sandow of Chicago in the other.

The tag team match will have as one team Whitey Walberg and Young Sandow, the other team will be Ali Pasha and Monty LaDue.

Ordinary safety razor blades are ground like a pocket knife. Pal Blades are different—they're Hollow Ground just like a barber's razor.

Result: Pal Blades are flexible in your razor—follow facial contours effortlessly. Your shave is cool, quick, no "bearing down." And delicate edges last longer, too. That's why millions call it the Pal Feather Touch shave.

Bixler Not Disturbed About "Hot Situation"

By The Associated Press

CLEVELAND, March 20—Head Football Coach Paul Bixler of Ohio State university declares he is "not disturbed" about the so-called "hot situation" involved in the Buckeyes' gridiron setup.

The new boss of the Bucks, who switched jobs recently with former Head Coach Carroll Widdoes, his present assistant, told members of the Cleveland Ohio State Alumni association, last night he was happy to have the opportunity to coach Ohio State.

"I'm not at all disturbed about this 'hot situation' you hear about regarding the Columbus job," said Bixler. "That condition exists because of the extreme interest you alumni have in the university. If the interest wasn't there . . . I wouldn't want to be connected with the school."

Episcopal Church Group Meets at Parish House

Saint Ann's chapter of the Women of St. Paul's Episcopal church met in the parish house Tuesday. Following the business meeting Mrs. Francis McKinney reviewed 'Our Expanding Church' by James Thayer Addison, who is director of the National Council of Episcopal Churches Overseas and an authority on missionary work.

Mrs. McKinney also related some of her own experiences when she spent a summer assisting two women missionaries at St. Micheal's Mission for Indians in Wyoming. Mrs. Frank Moore and Mrs. Grant Mouser Jr. served refreshments.

At 11:15 a. m. next Tuesday there will be a Women's Corporate communion service at the church followed by a luncheon and meeting, it was announced.

JR. C. OF C. INDORSES SCHOOL PROGRAM

Group Also Acts To Conduct Cancer Drive Here.

The Marion Junior Chamber of Commerce last night voted unanimously to support the revised Marion school building program as set forth by the Civic Planning Group.

Support of the issue followed a report from Jacob E. Thomas, Junior Chamber representative at a recent Civic Planning Group meeting.

The Jaycees also voted to sponsor a drive for support of the Marion county unit of the American Cancer Society. The Chamber will have complete charge of raising funds for the society. Amount of money sought and dates for the drive will be decided at a future joint meeting of Junior Chamber and Cancer Society representatives.

Funds will be used for continuance of the cancer clinic at the Marion City hospital. Plans are being laid with the assistance of Mrs. H. K. Mouser, head of the Cancer Society in Marion county, and Robert Axe, treasurer. Robert Solinger, president of the Jaycees, will be chairman of the drive and William Ogan will be publicity chairman.

A report from representatives to the state Junior Chamber of Commerce meeting in Columbus last Sunday was read during the meeting and two new members joined the organization. They are Robert Chase of the Marion Stock Yards and Walter Collins of McMillen Feed Mills, Inc.

BUS BUILDING WORK STARTS

Ground Broken for New Structure, Company Informs Council.

Ground has been broken for construction of a new storage and maintenance building for the Marion Rapid Transit Co. on West Center street west of the Big Four railroad tracks, officials of the company reported to members of city council at a dinner meeting in the clubroom of Hotel Harding Tuesday night. Materials have been received and the building is expected to be finished by Sept. 1.

Constructed of cement blocks and bricks, the building will be used as a storage garage and maintenance shop for the present fleet of buses and new ones expected to be bought as demand for extended service grows. It will be 200 by 50 feet and contain modern facilities for servicing buses.

Officials reported that work of overhauling equipment and revising schedules which was promised when the franchise was renewed is progressing according to schedule. All buses will be painted gray and white as rapidly as possible. Speeded up schedules on the Center and Davids street line and the Silver and Mt. Vernon run have already been put into effect.

The Oakland Heights loop has been reversed on recommendation of the police and safety-service director to avoid a traffic hazard caused when buses laid over at the intersection of Davids street and Woodrow avenue.

All members of the city council were present with the exception of Harold Robinson. Also present were Mayor Harry L. Dowler and George T. Geran, attorney for the company. Officials of the company reporting were Robert Maag Sr., Ray Maag, Fred Maag, Leo Hill and Sheldon Dodds.

ROTARY MEMBERS SEE GOLF PICTURES

George Planck Shows Special Films at Palace Theater.

Members of the Rotary club and guests were entertained with a special showing of motion pictures at the Palace theater yesterday afternoon following the club's weekly luncheon at Hotel Harding. George E. Planck, Palace theater manager, who is the club's program chairman for March, presented movies of special interest to golfers, including action pictures of Byron Nelson, "Jug" McSpaden and Sam Byrd.

James Harmon, who presided at the birthday table, read interesting facts and events occurring on the birthday dates of the club celebrants.

Guests included Clyde Hinamon, Herbert Duerr, Robert Minard and Dr. Richard Morgan of Marion, L. G. Peters of Norfolk, Va., Fred M. Sage and F. M. Shelton of Columbus, Max Schafer of Decatur, Ind., Charles F. Yahrling of Youngstown and Hugh Leaming of Avon, N. Y.

At next week's meeting Rotarians will invite guests who are interested in farming. Speaker for the meeting will be C. D. Blubaugh of Knox county who will speak on "The Proposition of Modern Farming and Soil Conservation." The purpose of the program is to promote fellowship between residents of urban and rural districts.

Dorothy Decker was this week's student reporter from the Harding High school journalism class.

Atomic Leak Called "Ominous Situation"

By The Associated Press

WASHINGTON, March 20 — Legislation designed to safeguard atomic energy secrets took shape today after the senate heard that an "ominous situation" was presented by the arrest of a British scientist who worked in an American laboratory.

The activities of Dr. Alan Nunn May, now held in London on a charge of violating the Officials Secrets act, were detailed in a letter from Maj. Gen. Leslie R. Groves, head of the atomic bomb project. The letter was read to the senate yesterday by Senator Hickenlooper (D-Iowa), a member of the special atomic energy commission.

"To the extent that this letter reveals at least a part of the activity of this man May," Hickenlooper said, "it presents an ominous situation."

Hickenlooper said he believed a general knowledge would be "dangerous" if scattered "at will or in a subversive way."

Among questions still to be settled by the committee is the severity of punishment to be prescribed for violators of atomic secrets.

Kenton Sewage Plant Pushed by Leaders

Church Studies Restoration Program at Meeting Here

Speakers Explain Restoration Work as Marion Presbytery Meets at Forest Lawn Church.

The work of the Presbyterian church in the spiritual healing and material rehabilitation of the war-devastated countries in Europe and Asia, and the forwarding of the denomination's work in America through the restoration program of the church, was presented by two outstanding speakers, Rev. S. H. Franklin Jr., S. T. M., and Dr. Claire M. Stewart, at a meeting of the Marion Presbytery last night in the Forest Lawn Presbyterian church. Rev. Franklin is acting secretary of the Presbyterian Board of Foreign Missions in the central area, with headquarters in Chicago, and Dr. Stewart is director of the Synod of Ohio.

175 Attend

Approximately 175 pastors and lay representatives of the more than 30 churches in the presbytery attended the meeting which was preceded by a dinner held in the Community house, with Rev. L. V. Bauguess as the host pastor.

A great door of opportunity has opened to us, Rev. Franklin said in presenting the work which has been outlined for the war-devastated countries and which will be financed through the $27,000,000 restoration fund of the Presbyterian Church, U. S. A., for relief and rehabilitation at home and abroad. Pointing out that the peoples of the world are looking for spiritual help to fill the vacuum existing today, he cited a need new standards of honesty, morality and spiritual values.

A chaplain in the Pacific theater of operations for two and one-half years, Rev. Franklin was able to give a first-hand picture of the spiritual and material needs of the people in the war-torn countries. Citing the millions who are hungry and without homes he emphasized the immediate need of help from the Christian world to not only restore the faith of the people but to save them from turning to Communism or similar doctrines. He called especial attention to the needs of the children of these countries and predicted that of the one million orphans in Poland 40 per cent will die from lack of care and nutrition. "Today," he declared, "the world is watching to see what we of the Christian church will do with this costly victory and breathing spell."

Mission of Church

"War, which creates suffering in tremendous degrees, is followed by peace and after that the healing which is the mission of the church, Dr. Stewart told his audience in discussing the twenty-seven million dollar rehabilitation fund. The sum, he stated, was arrived at through careful and thorough study by businessmen, lawyers, laymen and ministers. This is the first time the Protestant church has had a voice in world affairs and it is the great chance of our church to help our friends in Europe and Asia, he stated, and added that "the stake is large, especially in Asia." In discussing the work of the church in wartime he said that the underground was formed by Protestants and that the workers had to "lie, steal and cheat." Now, he declared, they must be helped as they want to be. "The Protestant church must do its duty now or the cause of civilization will change and all is lost; we had better do our job and do it now, or communism will take over where we fail; our debt to the past creates many current responsibilities; the present must not fail the past—restoration is our job," he said in closing. Following the talks a film, "Restoration Is Our Job," was shown.

Planned Program

The work to be financed by the fund which has been set by the general assembly of the church, includes relief and rehabilitation in Europe, Asia, and here at home ministry to new communities, rural church rehabilitation, aid to racial minority groups, refresher courses for discharged chaplains, support of aid to veterans and many other spiritual and educational services.

Dr. Harry Glenn Finney of Mt. Gilead is director of the Restoration fund for the Marion Presbytery.

Arrangements for last night's meeting were in charge of J. B. Bray, vice chairman of the Laymen's Committee of the Presbytery, of which Paul Backman is treasurer.

GALION COUNCIL TO MEET WITH UNION

Special to The Star

GALION, March 20—Speaking in behalf of the city electrical workers, W. H. Wilson of Cleveland, a union representative, addressed city council Tuesday night. The electrical workers were one of the several departments of the city, petitioning council for an increase in wages and better working conditions Feb. 19.

They are affiliated with International Brotherhood of Electrical Workers (AFL).

A motion was made for council to meet with representatives of the local union at 8 tonight in the council chamber.

The petition of Feb. 19 called for wage increases ranging from 10 to 25 per cent over present rates.

A resolution was passed providing for submission at the primary election, May 7, the question of the issuance of bonds in the sum of $75,000 for the proposed addition to City hospital.

SELECTED STOCKS MOVE UP FRACTIONS

By The Associated Press

NEW YORK, March 20—Steels, motors, some aircrafts and selected industrials advanced fractions in an otherwise irregular stock market today. A good number of favorites showed improvement.

Several unanswered questions concerning the international situations served to stymie bidding. Part of the selling was attributed to less favorable dividends and earnings prospects for some industries.

Higher most of the time were U. S. Steel, Bethlehem, Republic Steel, General Motors, Chrysler, Montgomery Ward, Douglas, United Aircraft, Glenn Martin, American Telephone, Philip Morris, Southern Railway, Great Northern, Standard Oil (N.J.) and American Water Works.

LOVE'S FAIR HORIZON

By ADELE GARRISON

"SIT down, Mary," her uncle said gravely, and with a quick, alarmed look at his face, she obeyed him, then leaned forward in her chair, her face and eyes tense

"Something really is wrong," she said. "With my fool egotism I thought Auntie Madge wanted me for something connected with my own fool pursuits But—who is it? Has there been an accident? The boys?"

Beginning of An Attack

"No, no, Mary," I said quickly with emphasis "But your grandmother has had the beginning of a heart attack, which Aunt Katharine says she will be able to ward off"

"Where is she?" Mary demanded, and her voice was filled with poignant anxiety. Her love for her old grandmother is very strong

"In the next room where Aunt Katharine is taking care of her," I said, and she sprang up from her chair.

'I may go to her, mayn't I?" she asked, but rushed toward the door as she spoke, without waiting for permission

But I was at the door as soon as she was, and stood with my back against it

"Aunt Katharine does not want any help, but she wants to keep your grandmother very quiet," I said

Then I added a quick warning, murmuring from the side of my mouth

Something Important

'There's something important on hand I must see you alone Play up!"

"Okay'" she responded laconically in similar fashion, and then walked docilely back with me, and sat down in her chair again

"I must tell both of you first," I said, "that Olga is insisting that we all come to luncheon with her today"

"I know," Mary said "She just called, to say that she had had to change her plans and that everybody was coming to luncheon"

"I thought everybody was until a few minutes ago," I said "Now I must tell her that Mother Graham can not possibly leave her own apartment, and that some one must stay with her"

'Count me as that some one," Mary said promptly, with an impish grin "I love my in-laws," she went on "I don't believe any wife going loves hers better But my idea of nothing to go into a swing rhythm about is one of the Philip Veritzen formal luncheons I'm always in mortal terror for fear I'm brandishing the wrong fork, or breaking one of the rules of court etiquette"

Prompt Answer

I knew she was rattling the nonsense off to enable me to stage whatever interview I wanted with her, and my answer was prompt and decisive

"'I weep for you, the Walrus said,'" I quoted, "but you must not be the one who stays with Mother Graham"

Mary stared at me with cleverly feigned incredulity, and I knew that she was 'playing up" as I had asked her to do

"And why not, pray?" she asked, "Am I not her very own blood kin—her oldest granddaughter? And haven't I taken a Nurse's Aid course, 'n everything? And I know all anybody has to do when she's resting after an attack is to keep her quiet, read to her, or something like that."

Dicky Scoffs

"Yes, I can see you," her uncle scoffed "Your idea of keeping her quiet would be to act out Ophelia's mad scene for her benefit."

'If you remembered your Shakespeare, or ever had read it,' his niece told told him scratchingly you'd know that Ophelia isn't terrifying at all, just plaintive and lovely But I didn't say no for her, I said read to her, and I'll ask Aunt Katharine to select the book"

"I'm sorry," I said firmly, "but you simply must attend that luncheon"

My husband's eyes mirrored astonishment now, and he vociferously echoed Mary's emphatic monosyllable "Why?"

YOUR HEALTH

By HERMAN BUNDENSEN, M D

Nosebleed

Nosebleeds may all seem alike to the average man, but to the doctor they can tell many different stories

At times, nosebleed may indicate the presence of serious disease, but fortunately, in nine cases out of ten, nosebleed means only minor rupture of the delicate blood vessels of the front part of the septum or cartilage which forms the partition between the two nasal chambers

In this area, there is a real network of veins which lie close to the surface and are normally distended with blood. Understanding this, it is easy to see how even slight things such as coughing sneezing blowing the nose or even bending forward may be enough to cause one of the vessels to break open

Bleeding may be profuse and continue for a long time even when the break in the vein is barely visible In other parts of the body, when a vein is injured, it tends to shrink back and bury itself in the surrounding tissues, which compress it and thus help to stop the bleeding

In the septum, the veins are fixed to the surrounding cartilage and thus cannot shrink when broken but remain open, thus permitting a free flow of blood until a blood clot is formed and seals the opening.

Picking the nose often results in bleeding because this part of the septum is so easily injured The fingernail breaks the veins near the surface of the lining membrane Not only does blood flow from the nose, but bleeding into the lining membrance also occurs

Secretions in the nose dry and stick to this area and persons are tempted to remove the dried secretions with the finger and thus new hemorrhages begin If the process continues, an ulcer or sore of the mucous membrane develops. Then, the underlying cartilage may be damaged and finally an opening all the way through the septum occurs.

Thus, when nosebleed starts, the first thing the doctor does is to examine this portion of the nose. If the bleeding point is seen, he can put pressure on it with a cotton pack or a piece of gauze, or the pack may be put into the nose and then pressure put on the septum by squeezing the nostrils together from the outside It is suggested that the pack be left in on the bleeding side for about 24 hours

After the bleeding has stopped, the doctor may touch the bleeding area with chromic acid This causes the blood to coagulate, or clot, and form a yellow scab. Thereafter, plain petrolatum is put into the nose three times a day for about a week.

Naturally, it would never be safe to assume that every nosebleed is due to this cause. It may mean something infinitely more serious. Such diseases as leukemia, a dread blood disease, tumors of the nose, infection either in the nose or elsewhere in the body, can all be responsible.

So can a foreign object in the nostril. A bit of wood, a pea, a marble, any of these and many others may irritate and cause bleeding.

From this it is clear that in every case, a careful search for the cause is a necessary first step in successful treatment.

Congressman Tells Senate Committee Sad Shorts Story

By ARTHUR EDSON
Associated Press Writer

WASHINGTON, March 20—Dignified members of the house banking and currency committee now know all about the serious shorts shortage at the home of Rep. Jesse P. Wolcott (R-Mich).

They know all about it because Wolcott, a member of the committee, told them himself.

The committee took time out this week to listen to a shorts story by Wolcott.

Over the week-end, he said, he tried to buy some shorts for 16-year-old Jesse Jr. All he could find were priced at $1.50 or $1.65.

"There was one difference between these shorts and the shorts we used to buy for 35 cents, or three pairs for a dollar," he said mournfully. "The difference is this: the high priced shorts are made of sleazy material."

He then turned to the witness, Robert R. Wason, president of the National Association of Manufacturers.

"Don't you agree that a deterioration of quality is the same as an increase in price?" he asked.

"It's everywhere," agreed Wason.

Wolcott turned to shirts.

He said he had noticed some sports shirts, but "a lot of us are not sports."

Your reporter was anxious about Jesse Jr. Wolcott was sought out after the hearing, and you'll be happy to know that, in spite of everything, Jesse Jr., will be fully clothed.

"I finally bought him some knitted ones at 69 cents a pair," said Wolcott. "I wouldn't think of buying him the other kind.

Surplus War Goods Sold in This Area

Surplus property sold by the Cleveland office of the war assets corporation brought $503,492.34 during the period from Feb. 15 to Feb. 28, according to the semi-monthly report of the Cleveland regional office.

Purchasers from Marion and vicinity include the Osgood company of Marion, which brought a used grinder for $987.50; Union county engineer of Marysville, 258 units of sheeting and pipe, transite and asbestos cement for $155.40, and Union county, 24 units of clay reducing for $4.80, and 1,226 pieces of nonmetallic mineral bisci products for $136.71.

Buyers included more than 300 firms and individuals throughout the east and Mid-west. Highest sale was to the Babcock and Wilcox Tube Co. of Beaver Falls, Pa., which purchased two drawbenches for $36,408. Lowest individual sale was to a Troy advertising company which bought a gallon of paint for $1.32.

Nimitz Sees Danger in Navy Fund Cut

By The Associated Press

WASHINGTON, March 20 — Adm. Chester W. Nimitz told the house naval committee yesterday that a proposed $2,100,000,000 Navy budget cut will have a "very serious effect" on America's position in world affairs.

The chief of naval operations told the committee that the proposed slash will mean a reduction of 114 ships in the active fleet.

Nimitz asserted it would take a "minimum of six months" to bring the Navy back to its 1945 fighting strength if an emergency arose.

"If the nature of the emergency were such that demobilization could be stopped," he said, "I would estimate that a minimum of six months would be required" to rebuild the Navy to its strength of last fall.

Suit Settled

Damage suit of Byron L. Smith against the Stone Grill Co. of Marion and the New Philadelphia Brewery, Inc., has been dismissed from common pleas court after a settlement was reached. In his petition Smith claimed $10,000 damages for injuries he said he received when he was struck in the left leg by an iron door while brewery employes were unloading at the Stone Grill Co. He said that as he walked out of the grill a brewery employe had opened the iron doors in the sidewalk and that one of the doors had struck him in the left leg. Frank Wiedemann was Smith's attorney.

Asks $300 Damages

William Kline has filed a suit for $300 damages against the American Auto Transit Co. in common pleas court. Kline charges the driver of one of the company's tractor-trailer units with being responsible for an automobile accident in which his auto and house trailer were damaged. The accident happened on Route 4 south of Marion in February 1946. Donithen and Michel are Kline's attorneys.

The report approved yesterday by the full committee was drafted by a new subcommittee after rejection of the earlier report. It was much shorter and did not detail any specific findings or recommendations.

Several members indicated they would file a minority report later, presumably because the committee action was not detailed enough to suit them.

The committee said its investigation "disclosed that conditions in veterans hospitals were neither as bad as portrayed by the periodicals or individuals, nor were they everything desired by this committee." The investigation was touched off by a series of magazine and newspaper articles about conditions in veterans' institutions.

The committee blamed "wartime exigencies" and the use of inexperienced personnel for many of the conditions it criticized and said recently enacted legislation coordinating the veterans' medical service should remedy the situation.

Training Urged

It recommended that in the future military personnel should not be assigned to veterans hospitals. Attendants should be "carefully trained" before assignment, the committee said.

In view of assurances from Gen. Omar N. Bradley, Veterans Administrator, that conditions have been improved and will continue to improve the committee said, it feels that "no useful purpose is to be served by now commenting further on 'any conditions which have heretofore existed."

Eight Operas on Cleveland Program

Eight operas by as many composers, including Verdi's "The Masked Ball," never before heard in Cleveland, will be presented by the Metropolitan Opera association of New York in its twenty-first Cleveland season April 22 to 27.

As usual the Metropolitan will bring its finest singers, as well as the complete Metropolitan ballet, chorus and orchestra, in addition to the lavish stage settings and costumes for which the Metropolitan is renowned.

Among the singing stars will be Rise Stevens, Raoul Jobin, Alexander Sved, Torsten Ralf, Alexander Kipnis, Helen Traubel, Kerstin Thorborg, Ezio Pinza, James Melton, Eleanor Steber and others.

In addition to Bruno Walter, who will direct "The Masked Ball," and also "The Magic Flute," the conductors will include George Szell, Wilfred Pelletier, Fritz Busch, Cesare Sodero, Emil Cooper and Pietro Cimara. Szell, recently appointed musical director and conductor of the Cleveland orchestra, will be in charge of Richard Strauss' "Der Rosenkavalier," scheduled for Friday evening, April 26.

The following operas will be given during the week: Monday, "Carmen"; Tuesday, "Tannhauser"; Wednesday, "The Magic Flute"; Thursday, "Madame Butterfly"; Friday afternoon, "Romeo and Juliet"; Friday evening, "Der Rosenkavalier"; Saturday afternoon, "The Masked Ball," and Saturday evening, "The Barber of Seville."

Ohio To Still Make 1-Pound Bread Loaf

By The Associated Press

COLUMBUS, O., March 20—Ohio will keep its one-pound loaf of bread but will comply with a federal government order and reduce by 10 per cent the weight of loaves weighing more than 16 ounces, Gov. Frank J. Lausche announced yesterday.

His announcement followed a conference with bakery representatives and state and federal government officials.

An Ohio law prohibits the sale of bread loaves weighing less than 16 ounces, but the one-pound loaves constitute but three per cent of the bread baked in this state. The 97 per cent remainder weigh from 22 to 24 ounces.

PIONEER OF KANSAS, OHIO NATIVE, IS STRICKEN

Mrs. Clara Doughty, Kin of Marion Co. Residents, Dies.

Mrs. Clara E. Doughty, 87, of Alva, Okla., a relative of two Marion county residents died Monday, March 4, at the home of a son, Allen W. Doughty in that city. She and her husband E. W. Doughty, who died last April, were Kansas pioneers and made the "run" into northwestern Oklahoma at the time the Cherokee strip opened in 1893.

Mrs. Doughty, the former Clara E. Merriss, was born Dec. 26, 1858, in Van Wert county, O. Married to Mr. Doughty in 1873, they joined the movement of the early pioneers in 1875 and settled on a farm near Newton, Kan., where they lived for eight years. In 1854 they moved to Barber county, Kan., on a farm south of Medicine Lodge where they remained until 1893 when they moved to the new town of Alva. They had lived at the same address in Alva for almost 50 years. Mrs. Doughty was one of the founders of the First Christian church in that city.

Survivors here are two sisters-in-law Mrs. Dora Clutter of Kirkpatrick and Mrs. Isabel Doughty of North Seffner avenue. She is also survived by two sons, one daughter, 15 grandchildren, and nine great grandchildren.

Boyle Finds British Troops Resigned To War

By HAL BOYLE
AP Newsfeatures Writer

CAIRO—There is widespread disillusion among veteran British troops in the middle east on the prospects of permanent peace.

In such international developments as the march of Russian troops into Iran they see the seeds of a new conflict—the age old jockeying for position among the big powers that has always led to war in the past.

Hal Boyle

And to these men, whose first hand study of history won them bloodstained diplomas, the rubs and rivalries of great nations are more depressingly significant of what lies ahead than all the rosy word pictures of world concord painted by UNO diplomats.

The realities of battle and the discomforts of military life left them a growing yearning for idealism, but also suspicious of its realization in world affairs. They are quick to withdraw into their protective shell of cynicism at the first indication that the world is stepping back into its old familiar pattern with the actions that have always preluded strife. Those who most want peace are now among the first to lose faith in it.

Already Resigned

I talked with one young Royal Air Force officer waiting to go home to England who said he was already resigned to fighting in another war. He has just finished one war and now he is waiting for the next to begin. He was quite calm. That was what was the most appalling thing about it—his lack of emotional protest, his complete absence of resistance to the whole idea. He just assumed another war is coming matter of factly, as another man might accept the theory that the sun will shine tomorrow as usual.

"The world is finished," he said. "I really believe the world is finished.

"As long as hate lives in the world what nonsense it is to talk of peace. And what did our war do to kill hate? Nothing. What lesson have we learned? None. The Jew hates the Arab and the German still hates the Jew. The Austrian hates the Italian and the Italian hates the Yugoslav. Franco hates the French and I hate Franco.

"Let It Come"

"Every person, every nation has its own hatreds. And what can come from hatred but war? Well, let it come. Even if I crack-up I can still say I've had a good life, a bloody good life."

This young man is not yet 20 years old. He is unmarried. And today he feels more certain of having a second war than he does of having children. He feels he has had a full life. By most standards, quiet standards most men want to live by, his life has hardly begun.

Lausche - Bob Hope Grudge Golf Match Billed for Summer

By The Associated Press

CLEVELAND, March 20 — A governor - versus - gagster golf match, possibly for the financial benefit of a zoo, was in the making today.

Sometime this summer comedian Bob Hope, a former Cleveland boy, and Gov. Frank J. Lausche, former Cleveland mayor, will get together on the fairway, promises the funster, their first golfing get-together was last year, along with Bing Crosby and Henry Picard, in an exhibition game at Cleveland.

Lausche, because of "painful and disparaging remarks about my game last year," challenged Hope to play him this year.

Hope promptly took him up, and then brought the governor into a sequence of his radio program last night. Hope quipped on the air that since Lausche's golf game is in the 70's he didn't see how he found time to run the state.

The governor's sequence in the script contained no wisecracks, but when the studio audience applauded his first appearance, Lausche smiled and said "Thanks, Democrats."

Just when the 1946 match will be played is a little uncertain. The governor suggested Aug. 26-31, the period during which the national caddy tournament will be played in Columbus. Or some other date be added, as a benefit match for the Columbus zoo.

"I wonder if the governor means anything personal by that zoo angle?" retorted Hope.

Ohio Cemetery Heads To Meet in Marion

The Ohio Association of Cemetery Superintendents will hold its 1946 convention at the Hotel Harding Oct. 21 to 23, according to the March number of the "Ohio Beam," the association's publication.

The bulletin is edited by Donald E. Sloan of Marion, superintendent of the Marion cemetery. He is second vice president of the Ohio Association of Cemetery Superintendents. His brother, Edward N. Sloan of Columbus, former superintendent of the Marion cemetery, is secretary - treasurer of the association.

Programs on the Air

America's town meeting will ask four experts on international affairs if, in their opinion, Russia is a threat to world peace on Thursday, March 21, from 8:30 to 9:30 p. m., over WJZ-ABC. Participants in symposium on "Have Britain And America Any Reason To Fear Russia?" will be Henry Cabot Lodge, former senator from Massachusetts; H. V. Kaltenborn, radio news analyst; Dr. Jerome Davis, author and correspondent in Russia for American and Canadian newspapers, and Joseph C. Harsch, foreign correspondent, news analyst and contributor to the Christian Science Monitor.

Along with the radio plans to broadcast the atom bomb tests off Bikini atoll in the Pacific in May, television expects to be able to do its share. That will be possible through delayed transmission of special motion pictures.

A pool of six television broadcasters in New York, Chicago, Philadelphia and Schenectady is being set up to send a cameraman to the scene of operations. After approval by the Navy, the films will be rushed to the participating stations, along with any others available, for the earliest possible transmission.

The telecasters are NBC's WNBT, CBS' WCBW and Dumont's WABD in New York, Philco's WPTZ in Philadelphia, Balaban and Katz' WBKB in Chicago and the ABC network which will use G. E.'s WRGB at Schenectady.

Network broadcast of the actual explosion also is to be via a pool arrangement, coming to all four chains from a single microphone aboard a plane near the scene. However, each network expects to have additional separate programs in connection with the event.

Coming Up Tonight: MBS 10—"Endorsed by Dorsey," first of a new variety music series built by Tommy Dorsey, recently named popular music director of WOR, the network's New York station. Dorsey will not appear on the air, the orchestra to be conducted by Emerson Buckley, with Tiny Rufner as M.C. Each program will have a different set of singers.

See the new SWIFT at the Marion Airport, Sunday, March 24

Stanley W. Baker invites you to come out and inspect this remarkable new post-war airplane.
Here are a few of the outstanding advantages of an all-metal airplane.
The gleaming weather-proof all-metal skin is the mark of a MODERN airplane.
All-metal military type construction means extra strength and safety.
All-metal covering means no inflammable fabric to tear, no expensive recovering or repainting to do.
All-metal construction means quick, easy servicing.
Segmental wings permit quick, low-cost replacement of wing tips, slots, or entire wing panels in case of accidental damage.
Remember, when you fly an all-metal plane you fly the safest and best.

Relief At Last For Your Cough

Chronic bronchitis may develop if your cough, chest cold, or acute bronchitis is not treated and you cannot afford to take a chance with any medicine less potent than Creomulsion which goes right to the seat of the trouble to help loosen and expel germ-laden phlegm and aid nature to soothe and heal raw, tender, inflamed bronchial mucous membranes.

Creomulsion blends beechwood creosote by special process with other time tested medicines for coughs. It contains no narcotics.

No matter how many medicines you have tried, tell your druggist to sell you a bottle of Creomulsion with the understanding you must like the way it quickly allays the cough, permitting rest and sleep, or you are to have your money back. (Adv.)

Imagine me! giving myself a permanent!

YOU CAN DO IT, TOO, IN 2 TO 3 HOURS AT HOME!

Steady Hands

A MORE distinguished appointee to a more uncertain position than Bernard M. Baruch for the United Nations atomic energy commission is impossible to imagine. The job, whatever it turns out to be, is in steady hands.

Meanwhile, the United States as the nation is to the main responsibility for international [illegible] the lid of a secret whose misuse could wreck civilization is uncertain what to do. The original impulse to turn over what it knows to an international brotherhood has been cooled off by the failure of the brotherhood to materialize. There is a sharp clash of opinion between those who see atomic energy as a purely military device and those who see it as something belonging to all the people. Never before has a major discovery been accomplished so deliberately by using the full resources of science. Yet, because science was subsidized and even directed by military authority in the project, the latter now claims continuing rights that scientists are reluctant to grant. There are the puzzles that must be straightened out before the United Nations atomic energy commission can function.

Only the Productive Can Be Strong

RUNNING through every comment on national and international needs of the present and future is a theme of the vital need of ever-greater production to make up a deficit of commodities in the wake of history's most destructive war.

Two miscalculations have helped to bring the deficit into clear focus. One was an under-estimate of what would be needed. The other was an over-estimate of what the United States, the world's principal producer, would produce.

It is evident that there is greater demand for goods of all kinds abroad than was anticipated. At the same time there has been less production in this country than was anticipated. The result is competition between the foreign and domestic market for what is available.

It is also evident, and disturbingly so, that production in the United States, which circumstances have made the pace-setter, is not automatic. The intricate machinery of American production has been injured seriously by the dislocations of war and internal differences of opinion. Some production has been halted entirely, other production is proceeding at a reduced rate.

In the presidential campaign of 1940, Wendell Willkie warned this country, then fumbling with preparation for war, that only the productive can be strong and only the strong can be free. It is not amiss to remember that warning, as confirmed by subsequent events. The fumbling now happens to be with preparation for peace, instead of war, but it is still true—only the productive can be strong, only the strong can be free.

Is OPA Working All Right?

NATIONAL Association of Manufacturers, pleading for a return to the traditional price control exercised by the American housewife, makes its most powerful argument in the form of a question: is OPA working satisfactorily?

What about white cotton shirts, butter, men's suits, low-priced dresses, children's play suits—and dozens of other items which are hard to get in spite of the fact there is no shortage of raw materials? "The reason the American public isn't getting the goods it wants today," charges N A M., "is that OPA price ceilings have driven them off the market. That is why we advocate the return of price control to the American housewife."

As congress prepares to make its decision on continuing OPA for another year, perhaps with modifications to make it less unpalatable to its critics, the issue is theory vs. practice. In theory, as Stabilization Director Bowles is prepared to prove, OPA is indispensable. In practice, as millions of manufacturers, wholesalers, retailers and consumers are prepared to prove, OPA often is doing the contrary of what it is supposed to do in theory.

The only legitimate aim of government price control is to control prices in the interests of the whole nation. Anything that tends to raise prices, or to curtail the supply of things whose prices are to be controlled argues against itself far more powerfully than the critics of OPA. The agency is not struggling for survival against its critics, but against its own record.

NO CLEAR SIGNAL THERE

London has just emerged from one of its worst fogs in years. We wish we could say as much for congress.—St. Louis Post-Dispatch.

AN ABSENTEE

In poll after poll, year after year, the Women's National Press Club probably never named 10 more outstanding women as the outstanding women in the 1945 honor roll, but for the first time, there seems to be a missing element here. The new list of feminine "makers of news and promoters of progress" lacks something or somebody. And since it would be unseemly, ungentlemanly and unwise to suggest that any of the 10 noteworthy ladies be removed from the list to make way for another, we suggest an amendment to the roll of honor. For where is Eleanor?—St. Louis Post-Dispatch.

News Behind the News

By PAUL MALLON

U. S. and Russian Relations Blow Hot and Cold.

WASHINGTON, March 20—The mercury of diplomacy blows hot and cold. Although President Truman stood by the side of Mr. Churchill when he proposed an Anglo-American alliance, State Secretary Byrnes celebrated St. Patrick's day shortly thereafter with a definite rejection of the Churchill plan. He submitted the counter proposal of maintaining sufficient armaments to enforce our influence in world affairs through joint cooperation of UNO. Mr. Churchill has now dropped his firm manner and poured Stalin with a needle dipped in humor.

From four senators, the inner international group of the foreign relations committee, drop into the White House and urge further steps against Argentina in a way designed to tickle Russia's ribs. Thereafter, the usual pro-Red but sympathizing promotional groups in CIO here issued a report held back since last fall on the Russian visit of 11 of their leaders, urging "closer understanding and cooperation between the American and Russian peoples."

The bellows, I judge, has dropped fast from hot to cold.

Simultaneously a business letter service reported Mr. Byrnes might soon be succeeded by a firmer and stronger man "despite White House denials."

Russia Gives Up Nothing

In the latest thawing of strange news vapors, no announcement was made that Russia had given in on anything. If the stirring and of the softer one had accomplished anything, the result did not appear in the papers or reach my ear.

Later on I propose to judge the points brought out in the Churchill-Stalin debate which stopped half way. To me it appeared the international atmosphere might have been cleared with beneficial results by a sincere weighing further of the points made by both sides—not as to an Anglo-American alliance which no one took seriously—but as to the merits of the basic differences between parliamentary liberty and the Russian dictatorship. I have been working on it.

But the Byrnes program is the latest development. Two sentences took out the wind which had been hollowed into Churchill's sails. These pledged no alliances and all future work through UNO. Now, as I say, this government never intended to follow the Churchill proposition, which was ostensibly made for diplomatic effect, as Churchill is not a government, but a minority leader in parliament. But the official statement of its renunciation by Byrnes similarly had the tendency of removing that snow of resistance to Russian actions.

As against these two sentences, however, the bulk of the address favored armament on the sound theory that weakness invites aggression. This was a definite renunciation by Mr. Byrnes, at least, of the old theory that military weakness makes peace.

Military Training

He renewed the call for "universal military training." The only concession he offered the opposition was that "it is probable as the years go by, the system can be adapted to the demands of education and civilian employment in ways which will minimize friction and disruption of private lives." This cannot be interpreted justly except as a demand for the youth draft act, which Russia has adopted.

Now the administration could get a universal military training program through congress if it proposed democratic methods of education through schools, enlargement of the national guard, etc. The Byrnes stand however, was firm for the draft way—military training away from home in camps.

For these reasons, I am led to the conclusion that we are going more of Russia's way in this latest cooling of the bellows than superficial accounts of the events would make it appear. The change of diplomatic pressures, the new activity of pro-Russian sympathizers and the simultaneous move for the youth draft—if carried into government action as proposed—would be a shift to a policy of studied confusion, but I have not yet heard a prophesy of how it will work.

Just a Minute

NOW ONE CAN GET HIS JUST DESSERTS

An eastern railroad has established a training school "to eliminate the effects of the war years upon the standards of dining car service."

Shortly now the hungry traveler may expect the return of courtesy and alacrity—along with that other wartime expendable, the finger-bowl.

The dining car rush is subsiding. No longer does one have to line up for breakfast to be assured of lunch.

At the height of the war, it was easier to get into Fort Knox than the dining car of the same name. And one was served as though the waiters were doing you a favor—and who is there to say they weren't?

Often as not, there was no sugar, no butter and the only meat on the menu was in the form of a pre-rationing gravy stain. Of course, you had your choice of vegetables. Canned peas—take 'em or leave 'em.

This retraining of personnel is going to be difficult. But if they can just persuade the cooks to heat up the soup, there won't be any trouble getting waiters to remove their thumbs.

Things are getting back to normal. Already back are short-duration casualties, the second and third calls for dinner.

GRUNT AND GROAN ARTISTS

Uncle Sam's World Finance

By Charles Molony

WASHINGTON — Uncle Sam may bring a $14,425,000,000 stack of chips to the postwar international finance and trade game table if President Truman's proposals all go through.

The way the chips would be checked out, on the basis of the administration's newly-announced "international economic program," shapes up like this:

Loans by Export-Import Bank, $1,750,000,000; British Loan-Credit by U. S. Treasury, $3,750,000,000 (not counting $650,000,000 more in settlement of lend-lease); subscription to International Bank, $3,175,000,000, and subscription to International Monetary Fund, $2,750,000,000.

Actually, Uncle Sam already has committed $9,425,000,000 of this. President Truman's new proposals would add $5,000,000,000—$1,250,000,000 more to the Export-Import Bank's present $3,500,000,000, and the $3,750,000,000 for Britain.

The proposed $14,425,000,000 may seem dwarfed by the $48,000,000,000 Uncle Sam actually put out in lend-lease during the war. (He got back $6,000,000,000 in reverse lend-lease).

Leftover Debt

It's even a little less than the $14,791,340,000 grand total of debts due this country from foreign nations at the start of this fiscal year as a result of World War I. (Unpaid principal, however, is listed by the Treasury as $11,230,804,000).

But it still would be the biggest stack at the present postwar international table, though government financial experts say Uncle Sam's chips won't all get put into play any one time.

For instance they point out that while the Export-Import Bank has been given $3,500,000,000 to lend it had allowed only $1,600,000,000 in credits at the start of this year. Only $252,000,000 of this had actually been drawn upon by the borrowing foreign nations.

Too, the various funds would be checked out over a period of years rather than all at once. The administration's Monetary Advisory Council says repayments of principal and interest would come back in time at the rate of $1,000,000,000 a year.

From Private Sources

The $14,425,000,000 would be strictly a government commitment of public funds. But the International Bank, the council says, will get the bulk of its lending funds from private investors, "particularly in the United States."

The war has put a veil of uncertainty over the extent of current American private investment in foreign lands.

In 1940, however, the Commerce Department says Americans had $7,000,000,000 invested directly in overseas countries and got back an income of $450,000,000. Most of the investment was in foreign subsidiaries and branches of American firms.

Department officials predict private investments abroad during the postwar period will get up to $8,000,000,000 to $10,000,000,000.

Not all the money that goes overseas from this country is investment or loan capital.

Funds Sent Abroad

During 1945 Americans—and foreigners residing in the U. S.—sent more than $30,000,000 in cash to friends and relatives abroad.

The Commerce Department says $44,000,000 was sent in pre-war 1939.

Private institutions such as the Red Cross and various private war relief organizations sent $200,000,000 abroad in 1945 but some went for administrative expenses and not all the rest was in cash form.

Money spent by tourists abroad is another thing. The Commerce Department says that even in 1945 tourists spent $400,000,000. It says it expects this figure to reach $1,500,000,000 a year within 10 years.

Stalin Recalls Churchill Enmity After 1918

Soviet Premier Replies to Briton's Criticism of Russian Policy.

THE bitterness between Premier Stalin and Winston Churchill goes back a quarter of a century to the Russian revolution.

Mr. Churchill was a pillar of Britain's war effort from 1914 to 1918, as he was to be again in World War II. Then, as later, he also was a center of political controversy.

After the end of the war, in which he had borne responsibility for preparing the British battle fleet for its greatest test, he lost popularity by taking forthright positions on delicate questions.

CHURCHILL

One of the questions was over British policy toward the Bolsheviks in Russia. Mr. Churchill favored open hostility and proceeded accordingly. Prime Minister David Lloyd George, despite his wartime reliance on the dynamic Churchill, began to turn cool on his associate. When the post of chancellor of the exchequer fell vacant and was given to another man, Churchill's loss of prestige was confirmed. He was defeated in the election of 1922 and retired from politics for several years.

STALIN

The Churchill-Stalin enmity is measurable in the extremely harsh opinions which Mr. Churchill has been voicing in the United States.

It also is measurable in recent remarks by Premier Stalin answering Mr. Churchill. Unfortunately, they were made available to the United States only as excerpts from a recording of a radio interview.

Because Premier Stalin's views, especially as they are related to his opinion of Mr. Churchill, are of extreme importance, salient parts of his recent radio interview with a representative of Pravda, Communist party newspaper are reproduced herewith:

"Mr. Churchill is at present taking part in inflaming the causes of war . . . Mr. Churchill begins incitement for war with the race theory giving privileges to the races who speak the English language and who have the right to decide the faith of the whole world. . . . Mr. Churchill and his friends in England and the United States are submitting to the nations who do not speak the English language a sort of ultimatum: you recognize our superiority voluntarily and everything will be all right. Otherwise war is inevitable. The people have shed blood for five years for the freedom and independence of their countries, not just for changing Hitler's rule to the rule of Churchill. Therefore it is understandable that the non-English-speaking nations who represent the majority of the population of the world will refuse to go into new slavery.

"CHURCHILL said that Warsaw, Berlin, Prague, Vienna, Budapest, Belgrade, Bucharest and Sofia are in the Soviet sphere of influence and that all of them are under one or another form of Soviet influence and more and more come under the control of Moscow. It is not difficult to prove that Churchill rudely and obviously lies here about Moscow and the countries bordering the Soviet Union. But there are people who cannot help being liars. Churchill argues that the Polish government, dominated by the Russians, is submitting unjust claims on Germany. There is a huge insulting lie. Churchill is twisting the truth when he is speaking of the growth of Communist influence in western Europe. The Communist influence is due to the fact that during the difficult years of the fascist rule in Europe the Communists proved themselves reliable, brave fighters against the fascist regime and for the freedom of the people. Of course such a development does not appeal to Churchill. He is worried and he has developed fear. But he did not like the establishment of the Soviet regime in Russia, either, after the end of the First World War. Then, too, he rang the bell of warning and organized the military crusade of 14 countries against Russia with the aim of turning back history. But history has proved to be stronger than Churchill's intervention and the Don Quixote plans of Churchill led to total defeat.

"I do not know whether Churchill will manage with his friends to organize after the Second World War a new military crusade against eastern Europe. But this is not likely because of the millions of simple people who are standing guard for peace. One can make a statement with certainty that they (Churchill and his friends) will be defeated exactly in the same way as they were defeated in the past 26 years."

So They Say

Harold E. Stassen, former governor of Minnesota—"We must begin at once a forthright search, on a bi-partisan basis, for the specific policies from which we can expect continuing friendly relationships with Russia. Then these policies should be frankly and firmly discussed with the Soviet Union.

Dwight D. Eisenhower, General of the Army—"If the atom bomb is as powerful and as cataclysmic as it has been said, I believe you will find the soldier more than anyone else yelling for international machinery to protect the peace and to make it work."

From News of Other Years

TEN YEARS AGO

It was Friday, March 20, 1936.

President Roosevelt heralded the beginning of the New Deal's $440,000,000 farm program with an appeal to farmers to cooperate and curb production of commercial cash crops.

Floods in the east and the Ohio valley now in their third day, claimed a death toll of 136 persons, damage had mounted to three hundred million dollars, and 20,000 persons were left homeless in the Ohio area alone.

Eva Mae Powelson, Agosta High school sophomre, won the tenth annual Marion county extemporaneous speaking contest at Agosta. More than 200 persons attended the contest held under the direction of the literary committee of the Marion County School Supervisors' association.

Mrs. John Liebenderfer, a recent bride, was honored with a shower when Mrs. Cutler Cahill and Mrs. Charles Ott entertained the Woman's Auxiliary to Marion Typographical Union No. 675 at the home of Mrs. George Sorrells on South High street.

Clara Louise Kraatz, Marion's youngest playwright, presented a one-act skit, "The Gangster's Moll," for a group of her friends at her home on Mt. Vernon avenue.

Mrs. Grace Parlette Sifritt gave a talk on "Homes in Foreign Lands" at a meeting of the Pearl Street Parent-Teacher association.

TWENTY YEARS AGO

It was Saturday, March 20, 1926.

Mr. and Mrs. John Atha of Quarry street, who had been married just a month, fell heir to a $50,000 estate left by Mrs. Atha's uncle, who died in Fostoria.

Col. John C. Coolidge, father of the president, was buried at Plymouth, Vt.

A $315,000 bond given by the Logan Gas Co. as a refund guarantee in connection with increased rates which had been contested was approved by the state utilities commission.

Miss Helen Jacoby, librarian at Harding High school, reported her records showed students of the school were readers of the best class of literature.

C. B. Rayburn, superintendent of county schools, announced that all county inter-scholastic athletics had been canceled for the remainder of the year in order that students might center attention upon their studies.

Mr. and Mrs. Willis Bowers entertained members of the O. M. B. club and their husbands with a 6 o'clock dinner at their home on South Seffner avenue.

Miss Pansy Rauhauser was hostess to the Bay View reading circle at her home on Linden place.

ART IS WHERE YOU FIND IT

Our favorite art gallery is that one in the offices of the Stevens Brothers in Fifth Avenue, New York, with a priceless collection of sports cartoons including some of the greatest of the famous "Tad," or T. A. Dorgan. There in the originals are Judge Rumhauser, Fedin's Sad Hat Harry and the cavorting frankfurters that make you realize that nobody has come even close to the cartoonist whose stuff constitutes a record of his times in the sports world. And in the galleries of the Stevens Chowder & Fisher Club you can see, too, some collectors' items in sports world photography. We were entranced by a group of Jack Wheeler, Damon Runyon, Sid Mercer and Grant Rice taken at the Polo Grounds when they were kid sports writers—porkpie hats, stiff collars and button shoes.

Arthur Godfrey, who millions have heard on the radio in the wee' small hours, has a new actor and is on view in the flesh in "Time to Make Ready." And he's darned good, too. A brash and-I-terrific airwave accident, but a well-poised easy-going comic with a country-store touch.

Dear Government

By Truman Twill

This is the week, dear customers and consumers, that our government is taking away 10 per cent of the weight of bread with no reduction in price.

Imagine how Chester Bowles would have screamed if the bakers had sprung that one on us because the government thought of it first. We are supposed to relax and call it patriotic.

As soon as we get used to the first turn of the screw, furthermore, they are going to give us some more, they say—at the same price. Maybe does the staff of life join the candy bar in the great American disappearing act.

No doubt the bakers will have the old people's bright idea of using the old bread wrapper and letting their commodity roll around inside it. Before long they will have to pump up the wrappers to keep them from collapsing too.

Maybe with bread it will be easier to take because what isn't there any more is going to be sent overseas, it says in the paper, to relieve our starving allies and former enemies. For this reason is going to be done at the civilian expense. It also says in the paper, however, that taking away 10 per cent of the weight of a loaf of bread doesn't mean anything in cost of living.

That's what it says: it doesn't mean anything. May we take it for granted, then, that the money saved will be given to the government? Fun is fun, but why be silly? We the consumers are going to pay for that wheat—twice over, when we don't get it in what we buy at the present old price, once when Uncle Sugar buys it to send to starving Armenians . . . or was that some other war?

As one consumer, one small consumer, I get smaller day by day, the squeeze that makes me want to kick somebody's shin is the size that disappears with mirrors—the package that aren't full, the gadgets that have been put together and won't work, the quality that has been chiseled out in secret. But the price remains the same. You pays your nickel and you gets hooked.

It's a snide trick. We don't like it when a private enterprise does it. But when the government does this means you, too, Mr. Bowles—gets tricky and slippery, excuse us while we step out for a moment.

A few days ago they put out a book in Washington telling what was being done for labor unions, for employers and farmers. Trouble was all going to get more. It doesn't tell in the book what is being done for consumers. Especially consumers trying to make ends meet when the ends are being shoved apart. We know what's being done, don't we, dear customers and consumers? And we don't like it!

Curved Rifle Shows Value

LONDON—Recent reports say that the German rifle designed to shoot around corners, laughed at as a freak at the close of the war, has proved so good that it will be adopted as standard weapon in the British Army.

EXPECT 300 AT GUARD EVENT

Company M Sponsors Homecoming at Armory Friday Night.

Nearly 300 persons, including present and former guard members are expected at a homecoming Friday night in the armory. The homecoming is being sponsored by Company M, Ohio State Guard.

Members from the following former guard units have been invited: Company G, Fourth Infantry, Ohio National Guard; Company D, Fourth Infantry, Ohio National Guard; Howitzer Company, 166th Infantry, Ohio National Guard; Headquarters Company, Second Battalion, 166th Infantry, Ohio National Guard; Company B, 166th Infantry, Ohio National Guard; Headquarters Company, Third Battalion; 166th Infantry, Ohio National Guard; Company H, Second Infantry, Ohio State Guard and Company M, Fourth Infantry, Ohio State Guard.

Final arrangements for the homecoming were made at a Company meeting Tuesday night in the armory. The event will start at 7:30 p. m. and will feature recorded music, recreational activities and a lunch served by Lt. Howard Fogle, Company M mess officer. A registration of all former guard members will be conducted.

Dedication of pictures of former Marion guard unit members killed in action during the war will be made. They include Lt. Paul D. Tron, formerly of Company D, killed in Europe; S/Sgt. Paul Riley, formerly of Company D, killed in Europe; Pfc. Orville Armstrong, formerly of Howitzer Company, killed in Europe and First-Sergeant Harmon Chapman, formerly of Company D, killed on Okinawa.

During last night's meeting a letter of greeting from Col. Hubert Taylor, former commanding officer of Company D, and now stationed at Honshu, Japan, was read.

Forty-eight guard members were present for regular drill last night. The schedule included close order drill by Sgt. Lawrence Edgington, chemical warfare instruction by Lt. Howard Fogle and machine gun instruction by Lt. Ralph Young.

DEMOCRATS UNHAPPY OVER WALLACE PLAN

By The Associated Press

WASHINGTON, March 20 — Henry A. Wallace started Capitol Hill speculating today whether he intends to spearhead a drive to force the major political parties to take a firm stand on top economic and international isuses.

He also failed to make the Democratic leadership especially happy by his dynamite-laden proposal that the party banish recalcitrant members who refuse to go down the line on major items in the administration's program.

The fact that this is an election year made the suggestion unwelcome to party chiefs trying to woo back Democratic legislators who have strayed from the administration's reservation in recent weeks.

Senator Hatch (D-NM) summed up one portion of Capitol Hill reaction to the proposal of the secretary of commerce that both parties expel members who desert on big issues.

"My impression is that Secretary Wallace was trying to point out the essential differences and hoping for a realignment of political parties in this country," Hatch told a reporter.

At the same time, Senator McKellar (D-Tenn) voiced speculation that the background might be connected with possible ambitions of one of Wallace's closest political friends, Stabilization Director Chester Bowles. He has been mentioned as a candidate for the presidency.

Pennsy Sets 16-Hour Schedule N. Y. to Chi

By The Associated Press

NEW YORK, March 20—The Pennsylvania railroad's "Broadway Limited" will be restored to a 16-hour operating schedule between New York and Chicago beginning Sunday, April 28, the road announced today. This represents a one-hour reduction from present schedules.

The new times, coinciding with resumption of daylight saving time, provide that the all-room Broadway, eastbound, will leave Chicago at 4:30 p. m. and arrive at New York at 9:50 a. m., while the westbound train will leave New York at 6 p. m. and reach Chicago at 9 a. m., all times daylight saving.

Reductions ranging up to one hour will be placed in effect at the same time on other principal Pennsylvania trains.

Roadside Caesarean Saves Rabbit Litter

By The Associated Press

SAN FRANCISCO, March 20—George Thomas of San Francisco, driving from here to Sacramento, struck a rabbit on the highway and killed her.

He stopped noticing the size of the rabbit, and performed an informal caesarean operation. Today he has four bunnies, all of which, he reported, were doing nicely.

THE MARRIAGE of Miss Elizabeth Niel Wise, daughter of Mrs. Catherine Wise of St. Louis, Mo., and the late Philip C. Wise, to Lowell S. Hamburg took place yesterday at the home of the bridegroom's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Albert L. Hamburg on Vernon Heights boulevard. Only the immediate family attended the ceremony read by Rabbi Samuel M. Gup of Columbus, O.

A wedding breakfast was served following the ceremony at the Marding Hotel. The couple then left for an extended wedding trip to New York and other points in the East.

MISS ROSALINE MANZO was hostess for a meeting of Beta Gamma chapter, Lambda Chi Omega sorority last evening at her home on West Columbia street. Reports were given on the progress of plans of the Hollywood party to be held April 2, and also on the "Good Neighbor" letters. Plans were made for inspection March 28 at Hotel Harding.

Members of the Literary Arts club were entertained at the Federation Home Monday evening with Mrs. William Luse as hostess. For the program hour Lt. (j.g.) James Myers of the U. S. Navy talked on his experiences in the Pacific area and also showed movies of places of interest in that sector, together with a number of souvenirs. A guest day party planned for April 16 has been changed to April 20 at Hotel Harding.

Mrs. Grover C. Snyder, secretary of the better housing department of the state, was a guest speaker at a meeting of the Searthlight club Monday afternoon at the home of Mrs. A. J. Loudenslager of North Main street. Mrs. Marshall McKinstry conducted the devotions taking her theme from Matthew 10:32-39. Mrs. Carson B. Shetterly gave a report on the meeting of the Marion Civic Planning Group and Mrs. C. Z. Zechman reported on plans for the federation fine arts day. Mrs. Snyder talked on "Homes Around the World."

Guests for the afternoon were Mrs. Artie Porter, Mrs. Emil Klutey, Mrs. William Keller and Mrs. Olive Gurley, club patronesses. Refreshments were served by Mrs. McKinstry and her committee, Mrs. Leo Keller and Mrs. Emil Klutey sang "Home Sweet Home," with Mrs. Klutey playing the accompaniments. A meeting April 1 will be with Mrs. J. E. Smith of West Church street.

A contribution of $10 was made to the Emergency Conservation Committee for the conserving of the wild life of the country at a meeting of the Burroughs Nature club Monday evening at the home of Mrs. J. E. Smith on West Church street. Miss Christine Rieck was an associate hostess.

Miss Edith Keeler, president, announced the fourth number in the club's series of Audubon screen tours to be given Tuesday, April 9, at Hotel Harding when Bert Harwell will speak on "Music of the Out-of-Doors." For the program hour Miss Grace Wingett read a poem, "Just Spring," and an interesting "Bird School" was conducted by Miss Keeler and Miss Jeannette Powers in which they discussed birds to be found in Marion and the community. Later there was a round-table discussion. Miss Helen Connolly, program chairman, was in charge of the program.

For the social hour refreshments were served from a table lighted with green tapers and appointments were in a spring theme.

Mrs. Earl T. Smart was hostess for a meeting of the Current Topic club Monday afternoon at the Federation Home. The members gave current events in response to roll call. A contribution was made to the Red Cross Fund Campaign and Mrs. Dwight Mahaffey gave a report on plans for the annual community fine arts day. A paper, "The Balkan Influence in American Life," was given by Miss Floretta Almendinger in which she included a number of the smaller Baltic nations. Mrs. James G. Cooper will be hostess for the next meeting to be held at the Federation Home.

Mrs. George E. Planck, was a guest speaker and reviewed Harlan Hatcher's book, "Lake Erie," at a meeting of the Advance club Monday afternoon. Mrs. E. O. Uncapher was hostess and entertained the members at the Federation Home. Mrs. Thomas H. Sutherland was welcomed as a new member and guests included Mrs. Planck and Geneva Miller Switzer, T/4, Wac, who is in the code division, Pentagon building, Washington, D. C. Mrs. Milton Mixes and Mrs. Robert Gentry were named delegates and Mrs. Harold Carroll and Mrs. D. T. Mills alternates to the state convention to be held May 1 and 2 at Cleveland. Mrs. Kenneth Harris, who represented the club at a recent meeting of the Civic Planning Group, reported on the meeting. A meeting in two weeks will be with Mrs. Henry A. Mickley at her home at 443 South Main street.

A sale of articles made by the blind of the state netted $116.17 a report of the chairman, Mrs. F. E. Flockencier, showed, when the Delphian club met Monday afternoon at the home of Mrs. J. B. Holloway of South State street. Mrs. Grover C. Snyder conducted the devotions, reading the Twenty-Eighth Psalm. To complete the service Mrs. C. B. Hudson sang a group of hymns with the members joining in the singing of "Onward Christian Soldiers." Mrs. E. W. Warwick reported on a meeting of the Civic Planning Group and for the program hour Mrs. Lewis Uhl read an article, "Germany's Deformed Conscience" and Mrs. Warwick gave a paper, "Can Your Child Read?" A meeting April 1 will be at the Federation Home.

The Mother Study club of the Child Conservation League met Friday evening with Mrs. William Beaschler at her home on the Marion-Upper Sandusky road, with Mrs. F. D. Loudenslager as assistant hostess. Devotions were conducted by Mrs. Donald Williams. Mrs. Dwight Moore and Mrs. Robert Walters presented the topic, "The Child and the Home." The guessing box award went to Mrs. Rollie Hite. Guests were Mrs. Walter Theobold, Mrs. Robert Tschantz and Mrs. Charles Mattix. Refreshments were served from tables decorated in keeping with St. Patrick's Day. The next meeting will be March 28 with Mrs. Ronald Bibler on the Wyandot road.

Mrs. James Rissler of South Vine street was hostess to the Sesame club Monday afternoon. Mrs. C. H. Lindsey was in charge of the meeting and the members responded to roll call with proverbs. Mrs. E. A. Schultz reported on the fine arts day plans. For the program hour Mrs. E. C. Garver presented a paper dealing with the religions of India in which she quoted the golden rule of each religion and Mrs. Margaret Geran discussed what religion had done for India, basing her talk on E. Stanley Jones' book, "Christ of the Indian Road." A meeting April 1 will be with Mrs. O. V. Roby at the Federation Home.

A playlet was presented by Mrs. Herbert Clapsaddle and Mrs. Don Phelps, and a theme of "school days" was carried out in the social hour with awards in contests going to Mrs. Clapsaddle and Mrs. Glenn Kellogg. Lunch was served in paper bags. The next meeting will be in the home of Mrs. Phelps.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Grossglaus of Canton, formerly of Marion, visited here Saturday. After 28 months in the office of strategic service in this country, Mr. Grossglaus received his discharge recently. Before entering service, he was investigator out of the office of the prosecutor of Stark county and will resume his work there in the near future. He is a former state patrolman.

NEWLYWEDS MAKE EMERGENCY EXIT — When former Lt. Col. Andrew P. Fuller, son of Mr. and Mrs. Marshall Andrew Fuller, of the Ft. Worth, Tex., banking family and the former Geraldine Spreckels, heiress to sugar millions, were married at the Central Presbyterian church in New York, they tried to avoid the corps of photographers who awaited them outside the main entrance of the church. But as they were making a modest get-away through a side door, one of the alert newsmen snapped this picture. This was the second marriage for the sugar heiress.

Mansfield Girl Wed to Galion Veteran

Special to The Star

GALION, March 20—In Mansfield Sunday evening Miss Eloise Piper became the bride of Charles Paul Fowble, in a double ring ceremony at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. James Piper of 466 North Mulberry street, Mansfield. Rev. A. P. Lindbeck of the Mayflower Congregational church, officiated.

Miss Marjorie Sheebe of Mansfield, cousin of Mr. Fowble, was maid of honor. Best man was Virgil Roesch of Galion.

A reception was held at the home, with refreshments served by Betty Blackstone of Mansfield, and Dorothy Seif of Galion.

Mr. Fowble is the son of Charles C. Fowble of 145 South Riblet street. He is now employed at the Ohio Fuel Gas Co. here after seeing service overseas.

Weddings

Announcement is being made of the marriage of Mrs. Estella Kern Roberts, daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Kern of Morral, and Kenneth Brady, son of Mrs. Harriett Brady of Morral.

The ceremony was read Saturday at the parsonage of Dr. Henry Schaeffer, pastor of St. Paul's English Lutheran church, in Marion. Attendants of the couple were Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Sharp of Marion.

The bride wore an ensemble of blue, with black accessories, and her flowers were a corsage of pink carnations.

Mr. Brady is an employe of the Erie railroad. He and Mrs. Brady will make their home in Marion.

Noted Organist Gives Concert at Hometown

Special to The Star

GALION, March 20 — Arthur Poister, professor of organ at Oberlin Conservatory of Music, gave an organ concert at Senior High school auditorium, Tuesday evening, that will long be remembered by his home-town folks.

A native of Galion, Mr. Poister is a renowned organist. His program here was sponsored by the Dorcas society of his home church, First Reformed church, where in his early years he was organist. The auditorium was filled to capacity for his performance, with many present from neighboring towns.

He began his musical career in Galion with piano lessons by Miss Bessie Todd.

Mr. Poister gave his Galion listeners his finest artistry, playing the same numbers he has used on a trans-continental tour.

Mrs. Sutherland Named Federated Club President

OFFICERS headed by Mrs. Thomas H. Sutherland as president were elected for two years at a meeting of the executive board of the Marion County Federation of Women's Clubs, yesterday at the Federation rooms. At this time also the federation adopted a constitution and code of regulations as prescribed in the incorporation of the organization which will now be known as the Marion County Federation of Women's Clubs, Inc. Incorporators are Mrs. W. N. Harper, president and a past president of the Ohio Federation of Women's clubs, Mrs. Carl W. Sawyer and Mrs. Paul Knauss, past presidents of the federation. The slate of officers elected yesterday, was presented at the February meeting.

Mrs. Harder presided for the meeting. In discussing club activities she called attention to the fact that the federation is one of three local groups supporting the free clinic at the City hospital and urged that all clubs have their contributions in not later than April 1.

Mrs. Sutherland, president-elect, and Mrs. Harder were named delegates to the state convention to be held in Cleveland May 1 and 2.

Reports on progress of plans for the annual community fine arts festival on May 7, were given by several chairmen. Miss Ann Mereness, social chairman, asked that each club provide two dozen tea cookies for the fine arts day. Because of the fine arts festival and the last meeting of the federation year, both of which are in May, it was voted to cancel the April meeting of the federation.

The report of Pan-American Fellowship chairman, given by Mrs. Harold Monnette, showed that $104 had been contributed by clubs to this cause, and Mrs. Lewis Uhl, patroness chairman, reported $164 in the patroness fund.

Fortnightly Club Has Election at Galion

HIO REVEALS EATH ROADS

...e Survey Shows Traffic Accidents Concentrated ...n Trouble Spots.

By The Associated Press

COLUMBUS, O., March 20—...traffic accidents report... 16,000 miles of rural ... last year were concen... certain trouble spots, the ... of traffic and safety ...

...summary prepared for ...ighway Director Perry T. ... E. Neal, the bureau's chief engineer, suggests that the findings be used for programs of widening, relocation and future construction.

More than one-fourth of all the rural traffic accidents happened on only three per cent of the state's rural highways, the report stated.

The highest number of accidents per million miles of travel in Ohio last year occurred on a strip of U. S. Route 33 one-tenth of a mile long on the Fairfield county line at Canal Winchester. The report showed 72.2 mishaps for each million miles.

Explains Figures

Asked how a tiny section of highway could have millions of miles of travel in a year, Neal explained that under the survey system used each mile of road with a 24-hour traffic flow of 2,700 vehicles would aggregate a million miles of travel during the year.

Second worst trouble spot listed was the .4 mile section of State Route 14 on the Columbiana county line at Washingtonville, which had 27 accidents per million miles of use.

A portion of U. S. Route 50, a third of a mile long, between Cincinnati and Mariemont had the next worst record with 10.2 accidents per million miles of travel.

Total travel during 1945 was estimated at 4,303,700,000 miles, an increase of 20 per cent over the previous year. The average number of accidents throughout the state's rural highway system was 1.9 per million vehicles miles, the report said.

On longer sections of highway, the greatest number of accidents, 68, occurred on a six-mile strip of Route 4 between Fairfield (Greene county) and Montgomery county.

Route 42 Dangerous

Forty-nine accidents on six miles of U. S. Route 42 from Mansfield to the Ashland county line was the second worst record in this category, followed by 41 accidents on 9.5 miles of U. S. Route 35 from Xenia to the Montgomery county line.

Of Ohio's 12 highway divisions, Division 8 with headquarters at Middletown had the greatest number of accidents, 429, while Division 10 with headquarters at Marietta had the highest accident rate, 4.9 accidents per million miles of annual travel.

Hitler Poisoning of Morals Still Tells on Europe

By DEWITT MACKENZIE
AP World Traveler

PARIS, March 20—One of the most terrible of the evils which Hitler inflicted on this continent was his deliberate destruction of moral and spiritual fibres, not only in his own country but in conquered territories, to facilitate the enslavement of Europe.

Many folk who abhorred Natism nevertheless unwittingly became contaminated to the extent that their moral stamina was weakened. You see this mark of the swastika in numerous parts of the continent and it provides a great problem in rehabilitation, because all phases of recovery — economic, political, social—are affected.

DewMtMackenzie

Germany itself probably has been hurt more deeply than any other country in this respect. He so far succeeded in destroying religion and substituting his pagan savagery in the minds of German youth that some Allied authorities count many of those between the ages of about 14 and 35 as lost to civilization.

While Hitler brutalized his own people, he did at the same time try to create a high militaristic morale among them. In the conquered countries his object was to destroy not only morals but morale and so deprive the subjugated people of their will to resist his domination.

France Was Goal

France was one of the countries in which the Nazi dictator employed the most subtle poison at his disposal, and he had some five years in which to work. He long had planned to destroy France morally. He wanted to create out of this great country one of the main buttresses of the conquered territories which he proposed to hold in servitude.

There were, of course, great numbers of French people who resisted the Hitlerite campaign to the utmost. Still, my French friends — of whom I have had many these 30 years—tell me that the fuehrer did do much damage which is being reflected these hard days in the frightful black markets and in a loss of public spirit in some sections of the population.

The German assault on morals and morale were cleverly plotted. It began with cultivation of the idea that, after all, the Reich wanted to keep France prosperous. By way of proving this the invaders were amazingly free with cash. Money was no object —and why should it be? They took it from the French state treasury with one hand and squandered it with the other in trying to buy the goodwill of the people. Apropos of this, German documents recently discovered here purport to show that some 23,000 Frenchmen applied for German nationality.

Favored Farmers

The Nazis were especially liberal with money among the great farming population, paying high prices without question for foodstuffs. In this way a black market in food soon was created and grew apace with German support. Similar tactics were employed in the cities, and black markets were encouraged for all sorts of commodities.

Hardheaded French folk, who knew the Boche of old and saw through the scheme, fought it fiercely, but it was an insidious thing which many farmers and tradesmen failed to recognize. People who were well-meaning enough but thoughtless drifted along with the Hitlerite tide. Things finally reached such a pitch towards the close of the war that many schoolchildren were doing black market transactions and handling thousands of francs. An upright man found it hard to make a living.

Well, that's the situation from which La Belle France is now trying to extricate herself. The morale and spiritual damage which has been done to a section of the population naturally is a brake on rehabilitation.

It's a serious position—and one which calls for a full understanding among France's friends. We are dealing here not with a problem of economics or politics but with a moral hurt that is way down deep inside the country.

Fire Causes $125 Loss

A loss of $125 was caused today at 12:35 a. m. at the Marion Rapid Transit Co. barn at 656 Woodrow avenue when a flooded oil line in the furnace ignited. The chief's car and fireman from the West Center street station responded.

MANSFIELD PACKERS DRAW $10,000 FINE

CLEVELAND, March 20 — Owners of the Kearns Packing Co. of 222 Wayne street, Mansfield, O., pleading guilty on 14 counts of selling meats at above ceiling prices in federal court, must pay a total of $10,000 in fines.

The joint owners — Edward Kearns, Adam Brandt, Louis Wenger and Roy Samsel — also were ordered by Federal Judge Leslie Darr yesterday to rebate $16,799.22 in subsidy payments received during the past three months to the Defense Supply Corp.

The overcharges covered a period from February to November, 1945, said Asst. U. S. District Attorney Fred H. Mandel, who charged the company had accepted "side money" in addition to invoiced amounts.

Feed Your Dog as Many Famous Breeders Do

"... like it and thrive on it."
Mrs. R. E. Duty, owner of Charminel Kennels, Tulsa, Oklahoma, writes: "I prefer Kellogg's GRO-PUP meal over every other form of dry dog food for our 17 Cocker Spaniels. I feed it with cooked or ground meat . . . and they like it and thrive on it."
MOST breeders and veterinarians use and recommend a foundation diet of good dry dog food fed with scrap meat, including fat. So many feed Kellogg's GRO-PUP because it provides all the vitamins and minerals dogs are known to need for growth and vigor.
Kellogg's GRO-PUP is thrifty. And dogs love its hearty, meaty flavor.
Get this scientifically formulated dog food in 3 forms: Ribbon, Meal, or Pel-ets—at your grocer's or pet shop. Made by KELLOGG'S of Battle Creek.
